

SECRETARY TAFT

Will Give Up Cabinet Work Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, June 29.—When William H. Taft leaves his office in the war department tomorrow he will have finished his labors as secretary of war. His successor, Gen. Luke Wright, will take up the work where Mr. Taft leaves off and will continue it along the same lines of general policy.

Before the war secretary relinquishes his task, however, a good deal of routine work will have to be disposed of and even before he left his K street residence this morning he had plunged into the work ahead of him. The time is short but the secretary expects to turn over to his successor a practically clean desk.

Charles Taft who arrived here yesterday from Cincinnati had a further talk early today with the secretary about his personal and political plans. Arrangements practically have been completed by which the secretary and Mrs. Taft and their young son Charlie will spend the fourth of July at Hot Springs, Va. There they are expected to remain practically continuously until the first of September.

One of the big tasks the secretary was confronted with today was the signing of thousands of letters in response to congratulatory messages.

MORMON ELDERS

WERE EGGED BY CROWD DURING PREACHING.

ROLLA, Mo., June 29.—Egged by the crowd to which they were preaching and drenched from water from a fire hose, twenty Mormon elders who arrived here yesterday were forced to take to their heels last night and promise to make no further effort to conduct services here.

$5000 PENSION

CONGRESS TO VOTE ONE TO MRS. CLEVELAND.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—It is thought likely that congress will provide a pension of $5000 a year for Mrs. Grover Cleveland, following precedent. Mrs. Garfield had received a pension of $5000 each year since 1882. Mrs. Harrison, the only other president's widow now living was not pensioned but she was Mr. Harrison's second wife and married him several years after his term as president expired.

In cases heretofore where President's widows have been pensioned it happened that the president had also been a soldier, but the pension was not granted on account of his military service. While Mr. Cleveland had never done military duty, he was none the less commander-in-chief of the army and navy. The rate of pension which congress has habitually granted to presidents' widows is $5000 a year. It was in 1882 that the precedent of granting this sum was established.

LAID AT REST

Funeral of John P. Mahoney Today

The funeral of former Assessor John P. Mahoney, one of Lowell's best known and most highly esteemed citizens took place this morning and was largely attended by many prominent citizens from out-of-town who joined with the friends and neighbors of the deceased in paying a final tribute of respect. Despite the expressed wish of the family of the deceased that no flowers be sent, many unaware of the fact sent a wealth of beautiful floral tributes which were laid upon the grave. The funeral cortege left the house of mourning, in Butterfield street, at 8:20 o'clock and proceeded to St. Patrick's church, where the deceased for an entire lifetime had been a prominent and devout attendant. High mass of requiem was sung by Rev. John McHugh and the choir, under the direction of Michael J. Johnson, rendered the Gregorian plain chant. At the offertory Mr. Andrew A. McCarthy sang "Jesus Salvator Mundi" and he also sustained the solo in the "Libera." As the remains were being borne from the church the choir rendered "De Profundis." Present at the services were representatives of nearly all of the older families of the parish and well known citizens of every walk of life. The principal assessors and their clerks attended in a body and nearly every department at city hall was represented at the church service. The following organizations, of which the deceased was a member, were represented: A. O. H., national president, Matthew Cummings; state president, John J. Rogers; state vice-president, James O'Donnell; state chaplain, Rev. Thomas H. McLaughlin; state treasurer, Daniel Reddy; A. O. H. county officers, President Donnelly and Messrs. Rooney, Corbett and Thomas Gaffey, Div. 23, A. O. H., John Ryne, John Thomas, David Powers and Owen Haley; Lowell Council, K. of C., Grand Knight McNabb and Messrs. Patrick O'Hearn, Robert J. The ushers at the house and church were Dr. Frank O'Sullivan and Matthew Mahoney. The bearers were Messrs. James O'Sullivan, Edward F. Slattery, Thomas Mahoney, Patrick Gifford and John J. Hogan of this city and T. J. Murphy of New Bedford. The funeral arrangements were in charge of James O'Sullivan, a lifelong friend and companion of the deceased. The interment was in the family lot in the Catholic cemetery, the committal service at the grave being read by Rev. Fr. McHugh. The interment was in charge of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

GIRLS SMUGGLED

By Means of "Underground" Railroads

CHICAGO, June 29.—In U. S. District Attorney Sim's crusade against the traffic in alien women an "underground" railroad similar to that used before the Civil war in smuggling the negroes from the south into northern states, has been unearthed by immigration inspectors and secret service men.

The system of bringing alien girls into the United States by way of Canada in spite of the vigilance of the emigration officials is said to have been divulged by one of the girls examined by the board of inquiry. According to her story, girls are brought from France, Russia and other foreign countries to St. Johns, N. F., and to Anticosti Island, near the mouth of the St. Lawrence river. From these places they are taken to Montreal in private yachts and up the Richelieu river to Rousselle Point. Both Mr. Sims and Dr. Davies, inspector in charge of the Chicago immigration bureau, acknowledged yesterday that they had learned of this underground railroad and that steps had been taken to break it up.

SUPREME COURT

Decides Against the Appeal of Walker

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., June 29.—Word received here today by Treasurer Stanley of the Savings Bank of New Britain states that the supreme court of Mexico has decided against the appeal of William F. Walker, the absconding treasurer of the bank who has been fighting extradition. The decision of the supreme court orders that Walker be turned over to the United States authorities. The information came through a telegram from the state department to Gov. Woodruff which was as follows: "The Governor of Connecticut: 'Department advises by telegram from Ambassador Thompson, Mexican supreme court has granted extradition of Walker and telegraphs Eusebiana authorities to turn him over to American officers.' (Signed) 'Alva Adez.'"

STATE DEPT. ALERT.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The state department is carefully watching the developments in the insurrectionary situation along the northern border of Mexico. The officials feel that the international aspect of the trouble will be adjusted satisfactorily and every effort will be made for the preservation of neutrality. The expected return of Enrique Creel, the Mexican ambassador, probably will be followed by conferences between him and Acting Secretary of State Adez which are likely to be productive of much good in the maintenance of the closest possible relations between the two governments in the matter. Attention has been given here to the allegations that the present insurrectionist propaganda was spread by agitators who used United States domain as their base.

HABEAS CORPUS

Harry K. Thaw Secures New Writ From Court

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 27.—Harry K. Thaw has obtained a new writ of habeas corpus returnable before Supreme Court Justice Mills at White Plains at 10:30 Monday morning when counsel for Thaw will endeavor to secure a jury trial to pass upon his mental condition. The writ was served today on Under Sheriff Townsend in anticipation of Judge Morschauer's signing an order at 11 o'clock this forenoon recriminating Thaw to Matteawan. The writ has the effect of holding Thaw here until Monday when the sheriff will be required to produce him before Judge Mills at White Plains.

The anticipation by Thaw and his counsel that Justice Morschauer would recriminate the slayer of Stanford White to Matteawan proved correct. District Attorney Mack presented to the judge this forenoon the formal order of recrimination to Matteawan which Justice Morschauer promptly signed. It would have had the effect of returning Thaw to Matteawan today had not the new writ of habeas corpus been served upon Under Sheriff Townsend. Thaw will be represented in the new proceeding by Attorney Charles Morschauer, a brother of Justice Morschauer.

TWO ARRESTED

Following Bachelor Dinner at Binghampton

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., June 27.—As a result of a bachelor dinner given in this city last night by Mackey Wells of Milwaukee, Wis., who is to wed Miss Alida Carter of New York today, Geo. M. Orr of Worcester, Mass., the groomsmen, and Person Wells of Milwaukee, were arrested last night. It is stated that after the dinner they proceeded to celebrate and a number of broken windows were found in their wake. Patrolman Clapper warned them to desist as they were about to enter an auto left standing near the curb. According to the patrolman, they made some impudent remarks and Mr. Wells was placed under arrest. Orr, it is charged, then struck the officer, freeing his companion. Two officers caught Wells and later Orr came to the police station to express his opinion of the arrest and was detained. Bail was furnished and today fines of $100 and $25 were imposed and paid.

MADE AN ASCENSION

NORTH ADAMS, June 27.—A. H. Morgan and J. T. Wade, both of Cleveland, O., made an ascension in the balloon Sky Pilot from Aero park here today. Allan R. Hawley of New York piloted the balloon.

There was hardly a breath of air stirring, and although the balloon rose to an altitude of more than 7000 feet and remained in the air for more than an hour and a half the aeronauts were barely able to get across Boosac mountain.

FROM SATURDAY'S LATE EDITION

NEW AERO PARK

Secretary McKenna Has Conference With Chas. J. Glidden

John A. McKenna, secretary of the Lowell Board of Trade, went to Boston today and by appointment met Mr. Charles J. Glidden at the latter's suite in the Hotel Touraine.

Mr. McKenna had a half hour conference with Mr. Glidden during which the proposition to lay out an aero park in Lowell was discussed. Mr. Glidden explained to Mr. McKenna that Lowell is an ideal place for an aero park providing the proper quality of gas can be secured. He said that gas of too great density would be of no service for balloons.

Mr. McKenna presented a rough plan of a suitable location for the proposed park near the gasometer and Mr. Glidden said that if the arrangements for locating the park in Lowell are made, he will make the first ascension in his own balloon. He said that the great argument in favor of Lowell is the fact that it is so accessible to Boston.

OUT ALL NIGHT ASKS FOR SISTER

"Peab" Thought He Had Lost Outfit Inquiry Made for Mrs. Josephine Daniels

A young man and woman called at the livery stable of O. W. Peabody in Warren street at midnight last night and the young man engaged a horse and carriage, stating to the night man that he would return in a short time with the outfit. The couple failed to return at eight o'clock this morning when Mr. Peabody called at the stable and the night man reported the matter.

Mr. Peabody immediately notified the police that a young woman of this city, accompanied by a young man, whose name he did not know, had failed to return with the rig and asked for the police to be on the lookout for the horse and carriage.

The police failed to locate the outfit or the couple, but at noon today three boys drove up to the stable with the horse and carriage and informed Mr. Peabody that a young woman had met them on Cabot street and told them to bring the rig to the stable.

CLARK ACCEPTS

WILLING TO ENGAGE IN WORD SAWING CONTEST

A word sawing contest is on the tapis which is causing no little commotion in the athletic circles of Belvidere.

The contestants to be John Clark and John Getting. The former is a well known athlete who is being trained for the coming contest by "Christy" McGrath who piloted "Clay" heroes of the cinder path—by his skillful training—to victory.

In this case he has outdone himself and confidently feels that his prowess will have a cinch victory.

On the other hand Getting is saying nothing but in "sawing wood" figuratively in silence and will so remain until the day of the big contest when he claims he will sever the wood with such lightning rapidity as to make Clark feel like taking a hike to the tail timbers. "Why," says Getting, "Clark does not know that I won the wood sawing championship of three states in 'Merry England' and of three countries in the 'Old Land'."

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Among the many visitors from out of town, friends of the bride and groom, were the Misses McEnroe of East Weymouth, Mr. James Tice, the bride's uncle, whose home is in North Abington and Mrs. John Gallagher of North Abington.

The reception was from 5 until 12. Music was furnished by the Colonial orchestra under the direction of John P. Donnelly and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. The decorations which were much admired were by Miss Mary Uquhart. The ushers at the house were Messrs. William Ford, John Ford and James F. Hunter.

OLYMPIC TEAM

Sailed for Europe This Morning

NEW YORK, June 27.—When the steamer Philadelphia sailed for Europe today it carried America's hopes for victory in the world's athletic arena in London. Practically the whole American team of athletes who are to compete in the Olympic games against the best from every corner of the earth were on board the ship. It was the strongest and one of the most representative body of athletes ever sent from America to compete for medals and glory on other shores.

Thousands of admirers of American strength, skill and pluck, crowded the big pier long before the steamer was scheduled to sail. Several hands added to the galaxy of the scene. Both Manager Mat Halpin and Trainer Mike Murphy said that the men will train all the way over.

They will use the poop deck for the work and a board track will be rigged up for running and jumping. They will have a special training table and a gymnasium with all the necessary apparatus aboard.

Two members of the team are anxious to compete in London that today they began their trip across the Atlantic on the steamer Philadelphia, the other on the steamer Minneapolis.

John J. Flanagan and "Matt" McGrath, the world's champion hammer throwers of the Irish American A. C., and Martin J. Sheridan of the same club, who is considered the world's greatest all-round athlete, have been allowed a furlough in order that they can accompany the team. Frank Sheehan, of South Boston, the holder of the national junior half mile record, will probably also compete in London for the stars and stripes.

FIVE BIG CREWS BURNED TO DEATH

To Face at Poughkeepsie Today Woman's Skirts Caught Fire From Grass

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 27.—All Poughkeepsie rose with the sun today to welcome perfect weather for the intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson, in which the crews of Columbia, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Syracuse were entered to compete. Weather and water conditions this morning were calculated to satisfy the most expert coach or observer. Hundreds arrived here during the morning hours and eager to witness the contests. Rarely in the long history of these intercollegiate regattas has there been one in which rowing shells were so widely at variance in their opinions as to the outcome. The result was that Syracuse, Columbia and Pennsylvania were almost equal favorites for the other two, Cornell and Wisconsin, were nevertheless not without their ardent followers. With every promise of weather and water conditions holding the chances indicated that Cornell's record for the four mile contest of 18 minutes, 53 seconds, made in last night's nearly approached.

Couch Courtney frankly said that Cornell's best time over the course in practice was 15 minutes and 27 seconds and indicated that he did not believe this time was fast enough to regain Cornell's lead in the regatta. Syracuse are said to have made better time than this in their private dashes over the varsity course.

The first race, scheduled for 3 a. m. for the university four oared shells over a two mile course for the Kennedy challenge trophy. Four crews are entered—Syracuse, Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania.

The second race, scheduled for 3:45 p. m. is for freshmen eight oared shells over the same two mile course for the Edwards cup. Five crews are scheduled to start, Syracuse, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Cornell and Columbia. The universally eight oared shell, the big event of the regatta, will start at 5 p. m. and will be rowed by Cornell, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Columbia and Syracuse.

Five crews, Wisconsin, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Columbia and Syracuse, are entered to compete for the varsity challenge cup. This contest is over a course of four miles beginning three miles above the great steel bridge and ending a mile below.

BUFFALO BILL SHOW

WILD WEST EXHIBITION WILL PRESENT NOVELTIES

With three open-air melodramas and a host of reckless horsemen on western bronchos there will be a genuine atmosphere of the open plains and rugged frontier life in the exhibition to be given in this city by Buffalo Bill's wild west and congress of rough riders of the world. There will be scenes of peace and war, a brutal warfare combined in one of the most features. A Holiday at T-E Ranch, which will show the pastimes of the plainsman and cowboy and will end in a vigorous Indian attack upon the whites, a rescue and final rout of the redmen. The leading features of the entertainment in this scene are of the deciding conflicts in Indian wars will be reproduced, with Buffalo Bill playing the role which he originally played in the battle—the death, at his hands, of Chief Tall Bull and the utter defeat of the Indians. Still another type of western warfare will be illustrated in "The Great Train Hold-up" in which the famous hold-up hunters of the Union Pacific will be shown in conflict with desperadoes who have robbed an express car and "held-up" the passengers on the train. In this scene a practical engine, practical cars, and all the essentials of real railroading will be shown, and there will be realism in every detail of the hold-up. The Rough Riders will display various feats of horsemanship. There will be a quadrille on horseback, broncho busting and stunts in displays of difficult tricks. There will be "broncho busting" and many other forms of accomplished horsemanship by riders gathered from the Far East and once wild west. In every way the exhibition will be a demonstration of open-air entertainment and at every address at the head of his company, directing the performance.

COMMUNICATIONS

To the Sun: The republican party's cry 19 years ago to the laboring men was "stand by the greenbacks and gold for a basis and everything will be cheaper." Not so, everything has been dearer, the gold plated republican brick of 10 years ago, or so called honest dollar has soared to a price of 100 cents and 20 percent or more, also all other articles in proportion. Under the gold brick system of government citizens of the United States have been allowed during the past winter to eat cold beans in colder homes and little children have been seen daily going into soup kitchens for something to eat to keep them from starving. Starvation has been the lot of the laboring man right in the face for the last 8 months. The inflated business done on paper all over the country prior to last fall by the owners of these gold bricks in stock concerns with but little real money back of them has certainly broken the laws and ignoring court lines, made a hard respectable republican cover all by true shame. Organized wealth by true, may fool some labor men some of the time. Some all the time, but not all the labor men all of the time.

THE COST OF OUR CELEBRATION

THE CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH OF JULY WILL SOON BE UPON US AND WHETHER THE CITY OFFICIALLY CELEBRATES OR NOT MAKES BUT LITTLE DIFFERENCE AS TO THE EXTENT OF THE NOISE AND THE NUMBER OF CASUALTIES.

INDEED WHEN THERE IS NO MUNICIPAL CELEBRATION, THE PEOPLE SEEM TO ARM THEMSELVES MORE EFFECTUALLY FOR THE FRAY, LOADING UP WITH FIRE CRACKERS, CANNON CRACKERS, SKYROCKETS, PISTOLS, RIFLES AND FIREARMS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

IT WOULD CERTAINLY BE A GREAT RELIEF TO HAVE A RADICAL REFORM IN THE METHOD OF CELEBRATING THE NATAL DAY OF THE REPUBLIC.

THE PRESENT PARTAKES OF THE WILDEST FREAKS OF INSANITY. GRADUALLY AS THE DAY APPROACHES BOTH YOUNG AND OLD SEEM TO GIVE WAY TO A MANIA FOR THE EXPLOSION OF FIRECRACKERS, THE DISCHARGE OF FIREARMS, THE JINGLE OF COWBELLS AND THE APPEARANCE IN PARADE OF ALL THE HORRIBLE BURLESQUES UPON HUMANITY THAT CAN WELL BE CONCEIVED. THIS, HOWEVER, IS NOT A DANGEROUS PRACTICE. THE DANGER COMES IN THE USE OF EXPLOSIVES TO SUCH AN EXTENT THAT NUMEROUS LIVES ARE LOST AND THOUSANDS WOUNDED EVERY YEAR.

WHAT IS THE USUAL NUMBER OF FATALITIES AND OF CASUALTIES WHERE DEATH DOES NOT RESULT?

TWO YEARS AGO THE STATISTICS OF ACCIDENTS IN CELEBRATING THE FOURTH SHOWED THAT 160 WERE KILLED OUT-RIGHT AND OVER 5,000 WERE MORE OR LESS SERIOUSLY INJURED AND MAIMED FOR LIFE. OF THIS NUMBER TWENTY-TWO BECAME TOTALLY BLIND, SEVENTY-TWO LOST ONE EYE, FIFTY-SIX LOST ARMS OR LEGS OR HANDS.

CHILDREN MOST GENERALLY BECOME THE VICTIMS IN THE FATALITIES AND THE MAIMING, OFTEN THROUGH THE PRACTICES ENCOURAGED BY THEIR PARENTS IN THE USE OF FIREARMS.

THIS SATURNALIA OF FIREWORKS AND NOISE WAS ORIGINALLY COPIED FROM CHINA AND LONG AGO WOULD HAVE BEEN SUPPRESSED WITH THE RIGOR OF LAW, BUT FOR THE FACT THAT IT IS SUPPOSED TO BE INDULGED IN FROM MOTIVES OF PATRIOTIC ARDOR. WHEN A CHILD IS KILLED OR MAIMED FOR LIFE, THE RESULT IS NOT MITIGATED IN THE LEAST BY THE FACT THAT THE ACCIDENT OCCURRED DURING THE FRENZY OF A PATRIOTIC CELEBRATION.

IF IT WERE ANNOUNCED PREVIOUS TO EACH FOURTH OF JULY THAT SOME GREAT PEST WAS TO INVADE THE COUNTRY AND THAT FROM 160 TO 200 PEOPLE WOULD LOSE THEIR LIVES AND OVER 5,000 WOULD BE DISFIGURED FOR LIFE, WHAT A FUROR OF EXCITEMENT WOULD PERVADE THE CONTINENT, HOW MANY SOCIETIES WOULD BE FORMED TO MEET AND COMBAT THE SCOURGE. BUT THE DEATHS AND CASUALTIES COME NOT AS A RESULT OF PLAGUE OR PESTILANCE, NOT AS A RESULT OF ANY UNAVOIDABLE BATTLE, BUT WITH THE FULL AND FREE CONSENT OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, AYE, EVEN WITH THEIR ENCOURAGEMENT. ALL BECAUSE WE ARE ACCUSTOMED TO THIS FORM OF CELEBRATING THE FOURTH OF JULY.

IN VIEW OF THESE FACTS, IS IT NOT THE DUTY OF OUR CITIZENS GENERALLY TO USE THEIR INFLUENCE IN FAVOR OF A SAFE AND SANE CELEBRATION, ONE THAT WILL NOT COST A NUMBER OF LIVES, BRING SORROW TO MANY HOMES AND LEAVE THOUSANDS OF BOYS TO BE CRIPPLED, MAIMED OR SCARRED FOR LIFE?

VERILY IT IS TIME THAT OUR AMERICAN MUNICIPALITIES SHOULD TAKE THIS MATTER UP AND ADOPT SOME ENJOYABLE FORM OF CELEBRATION THAT WILL BE DEVOID OF THE EXPLOSIVES, THE FIREARMS AND THE REIGN OF BEDLAM THAT STARTS ON THE EVE OF THE FOURTH, CONTINUES ALL NIGHT AND ALL OF THE NEXT DAY ONLY TO SUBSIDE LATE IN THE NIGHT OF THE FOURTH WHEN THE RISING GENERATION SINKS TO REST TIRED, SORE AND WORN OUT BY ONE OF THE MOST FOOLISH AND DANGEROUS EXHIBITIONS THAT COULD BE WITNESSED IN ANY COUNTRY IN THE WORLD.

NEXT MORNING THE PRESS RECORDS BY THE THOUSANDS THE CASUALTIES OF THE DAY. THE HOSPITALS HAVE THE WOUNDED AND THE UNDERTAKERS THE DEAD. THE LIST WILL BE READ WITH SORROW AND AMAZE: BUT WHEN THE FOURTH ONCE MORE ARRIVES THE VERY SAME THING WILL BE REPEATED WITH PRECISELY SIMILAR RESULTS AND THUS YEARLY WE GO ON SACRIFICING HUNDREDS OF LIVES TO A FOOLISH ATTACHMENT TO A CUSTOM THAT DID ORIGINATE IN GENUINE PATRIOTISM BUT THAT LONG AGO HAS DEGENERATED INTO WANTON RIOTOUSNESS AND FOOLISH INDIFFERENCE TO THE AWFUL CONSEQUENCES.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

REFORM MOVEMENT.

Springfield Republican: The reform movement in San Francisco is evidently in a stage where it has lost much of its early momentum. It has been for a long time before the public and public interest is able enough to grow tired of the performance of chasing the rascals. It has been unfortunate that the graft prosecution has suffered reverses in the higher courts on technical points of law, resulting in the liberation of corruptionists like Schultz and Rose, for the opening of verdicts on appeals has undoubtedly had a demoralizing effect upon public sentiment, which has been reflected in the recent disagreements of juries in important cases. Juries now are less likely to follow the lead of the prosecution than formerly, and they are discouraged in this obstructive attitude by a portion of the press.

That very much of the obstruction has emanated from subsidized sources is probable, for the graft prosecution is attacked upon the capitalistic interests represented by Mr. Calhoun, through the indictment of several men at the head of the street railroads, aroused those interests to a bitter contest. But of course to a effect has been the growing indifference of many good men, as Mr. Roosevelt says "whose zealous support you had a right to feel that you could rely upon. Such citizens ought to be stirred to renewed activity in behalf of civic righteousness and common honesty."

AN ENCOURAGING SIGN.

Providence Tribune: In New York a city official occupying an important and remunerative position has been arraigned for maladministration. It is alleged that he has failed to discharge his duties honestly and economically; that he has wasted on streets hundreds of thousands of dollars that could have been saved had he not been bound hand and foot with unscrupulous politicians in search of easy and profitable bribes, and that his incompetence is clearly proved by the records. There is nothing extraordinary in all this, of course; it is the usual thing. If the accused is removed he will be replaced by Tammany Hall, whose interests he has been serving. The public is helpless. But it is somewhat surprising, surely, to learn that taxpayers without regard to party are earnestly remonstrating and insisting upon certain radical changes in municipal government that will make it less difficult to fix responsibility and to hold accountable the gentry. Resentment has taken the place of apathy. It is an encouraging sign. The public may not always be helpless.

JOLLY CAMPERS

ENTERTAINED A FEW FRIENDS AT THEIR CAMP.

Tom Garvey, secretary of the Cigar-makers' union; A. Wahlgren, treasurer, and Tommy Gill, the apprentice at Scott's cigar factory, enjoyed the hospitality of the Jolly Campers at their cottage in Willow Dale Saturday afternoon and evening. About four o'clock in the afternoon they started to fish. They returned at eight o'clock with a night with some catch of fish as has been seen for some time at Willow Dale. They had 45 pound which weighed 30 lbs. and 40 fine white perch which weighed 20 lbs. The string of fish was the talk of the Dale and the fishermen were highly elated with their success. They speak very highly of the good time given them by the Jolly Campers.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

By the Mathew Temperance Institute

The regular meeting of the Mathew Temperance Institute was held yesterday morning, there being a large attendance of members. Final arrangements for the trip to Worcester on the Fourth were made. The several sub-committees which have the affair in charge reported favorably.

JOHN J. COYNE, President.

The following officers for the ensuing term were elected:

President, John J. Coyne; vice president, James J. Gallagher; recording secretary, James F. Riley; financial secretary, James F. Rourke; treasurer, John W. Sharkey; marshal, William J. Gargan; spiritual director, Rev. W. George Mullin; board of trustees, Geo. R. O'Neil, Frank J. Collins and Geo. T. Briggan; literary committee, Denis A. O'Brien, Patrick J. Bagley and William J. Smith; board of examiners, Robert T. Spencer, Walter E. Tucker and Daniel Wrenn. The officers will be installed at the next meeting.

STAR THEATRE

There is a show at the Star this week worth many times the price of admission. Billy Sully, the black-face comedian is head-liner. His music and jokes are up-to-date and highly entertaining. Babe Curry will sing for the first three days "I'm Waiting for the Summer Time and You," a very pretty, popular and catchy song finely adapted to this excellent little singer's voice. Miss Curry gets many words of praise for her sweet singing and she is a loadstone of attraction to those who will hear her.

J. C. Bell will sing for the first three days "The Town Where I was Born," a beautiful little sentimental ballad, in his usual masterly way.

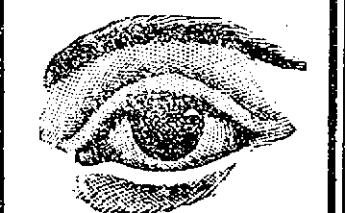

The new moving pictures for today and tomorrow are the best to be found in their line for nothing but the best is the motto of the management.

For Wednesday evening a special attraction is to be added to the usual program.

Mr. Alfred Leigh will do some tricks in mental telepathy and hypnotism.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

Tonight at Lakewood Theatre, the Adam Good Company will offer, for the first time in this city, the picturesque story of the Golden West, "The Girl of Eagle Ranch," a comedy drama in four acts. To follow up the signal success secured by the company in their play of last week, no better selection could have been made than this interesting play, for it has many strong points in its favor. Its scenes are laid at Eagle Ranch, just outside Missoula, Mont., and although the plot and atmosphere are thoroughly western, it has none of the inconsistent scenes and incidents so common to the usual run of western dramas. Comedy runs riot all through its action, the story is absorbingly interesting yet not complicated, and during the past season when on tour through the country from coast to coast the play proved to be one of the big successes of the year. Miss O'Brien as "The Girl" will have a part overflowing with life and vivacity and every one of the company will figure prominently in the play. Specialties will be introduced incidental to the performance and special scenic settings have been built for each act. The daily matinees will start tomorrow.

The Fire Was Caused by a Bolt

The general committee in charge of the Centralville "Night Before the Fourth" celebration held a well attended and enthusiastic meeting yesterday afternoon at headquarters, 21 Bridge Street. Everything is now practically in readiness for the monster celebration, but another meeting, the final one, will be held Thursday night.

The principal topic of conversation was the makeup of the parade, the naming of officials and aids, assistant to the chief marshal, together with the route of parade. The route was discussed at considerable length and it was finally decided not to announce the route till Thursday night.

Chief Marshal Charles Guthrie announced the following appointments: Chief of staff, Walter E. Guyette; adjutant, Jacob Bernard J. McArde; marshal of first division, Denis A. O'Brien; marshal of second division, Geo. E. Kasse. The list of aids to the chief marshal will be announced through the press later.

The committee on contribution announced that the money received so far amounted to over $50 with every indication that the grand total would be over $100. The finance committee will meet Tuesday to make its final report. Tuesday will be the final day for contributions and every member of the sub-committees having this in charge will make an endeavor to have things in readiness for the final report.

The two divisions will be composed of military and slant bang. The first division will consist of military and civic organizations and it is expected that there will be over one thousand in line. The slant bang division promises to be one of the best features ever seen in this city. The Gobs which have signified their intention of appearing in line are the Princeton Clubbers and numerous other clubs.

There will be carriages for the grand army veterans, invited guests, city officials, members of the committee, judges and members of the press. The committee wishes to urge all who intend participating in the parade, to communicate with the members as soon as possible. No communications will be entertained after Tuesday night.

The C. Y. M. club of Centralville met yesterday and furthered plans for their feature which they intend entering in the slant bang division. The members have labored hard to make it the best and their efforts, so they say, have been rewarded. They expect to pull off one of the prizes.

SUN'S ECLIPSE

WITNESSED BY MANY PEOPLE IN THIS CITY.

The eclipse of the sun was witnessed by hundreds of people in this city yesterday.

Shortly before ten o'clock the first sign of the shadow was seen and it continued to increase in size until about half of the sun's surface was covered. The eclipse ended at one o'clock.

The path of the eclipse crossed a portion of the Pacific ocean, Mexico, Gulf of Mexico, Florida, the Atlantic ocean and the northwestern part of Africa.

BLAZE AT CARLISLE LAST NIGHT

Destroyed — 1,000,000 Feet of Lumber

A bolt of lightning is responsible for the loss of almost 1,000,000 feet of lumber belonging to the firm of Blanchard & Co. of South Acton.

It had been out during the winter and was lying in Carlisle near the Concord line when it became ignited during last night's thunder storm.

The lumber was in an isolated section, and there was no one near by to give the alarm, but the blundering caused by the blaze soon notified the Concord fire department that its services were needed.

The fire spread with great rapidity, and by the time the apparatus arrived it had gained such great headway that it was impossible to save much of the lumber. The loss will be quite heavy.

Many people gathered on Fort Hill park and seeing the reflection in the sky thought that a mill at Billerica or else Concord reformatory was on fire as the blaze appeared to be in that direction.

CAREFUL PEOPLE

Should have their WINDOW GLASS set before the Fourth and insure themselves against Fire.

PRINCELY LOVER

Determined That He
Will Wed

MADRID, June 28.—"I will marry Beatrice if I have to quit Spain, leave the army and forfeit my princely privileges," declared Don Antonio of Bourbon-Orleans. "No sacrifice is too great for me to make for her sake, though I hope she may yet become reconciled to the Catholic church."

Religious faith is the only barrier to a marriage between Infanta Eulalia, elder son, a cousin of Spain's king, and Princess Beatrice of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, a cousin of Spain's queen.

Eulalia and her husband, the duke of Galliera, have stoutly opposed the match unless Beatrice became a Catholic, but Don Antonio seems to have won his mother over to his cause. At any rate, she came here from Paris with him on a hurried visit to tell King Alfonso that he had better induce the pope to grant a dispensation for a mixed marriage, as Antonio and Beatrice are determined to get married anyway.

The king is quite willing to help them out and so is the queen, who would dearly love to have her favorite cousin at the Spanish court for a companion. But the queen mother is holding out, insisting that Beatrice must accept the Catholic faith as a condition precedent to betrothal just as Princess Lina did. Princess Beatrice, who is built something on the lines of Shakespeare's famous heroine of the same name, is so independent and so resolute that the Spanish royalists are afraid she never will be converted except under stress of desire to marry the man of her choice. Even now she positively refuses to promise anything more than that if she feels drawn to the church after marriage she will become a Catholic.

The court is taking the liveliest interest in the case, and sympathy is all on the side of the lovers.

Nothing doing for the 4th in Lowell. Better go to Nashua races.

ATTACKED GIRLS

YOUNG ARNOLD WAS PLACED UNDER ARREST.

ANDOVER, June 28.—Fred P. Arnold, 17 years old, of Somerville, has been held for the superior court under bonds of $500 for breaking and entering and assault. He was captured Friday night at the cottage of John Shaw at Haggets pond. While ransacking the place he entered a room occupied by Ruth and Mary Shaw, daughters of Mr. Shaw, and when they gave an outcry he struck Ruth, aged 10, on the head with a stick of wood. Mary, aged 15, rushed out and aroused her father, who held Arnold for the police.

The youth was discharged from the Concord reformatory a few weeks ago. He told Chief of Police Pomeroy that he went to the Shaw cottage in search of a revolver with which he intended to hold up George Dickson, a farmer, who resides in the vicinity.

Arnold had spent a vacation at Haggets pond once, and was familiar with the vicinity. He put up at the Shaws the first two days after he arrived here, several days ago, and at the time the family suspected that there was something wrong with him. Nothing was seen of him after that till he broke into the cottage Friday night.

NORTH BILLERICA

A farce entitled "Which Will He Marry?" was presented by local talent and the audience of St. Elizabeth's guild in the new parish building of St. Anne's mission, Saturday night. The sketch, "An Unexpected Legacy," was given by Lowell talent.

An entertainment was provided which included the following numbers: Recitation, "The Whistling Regiment," Miss Mary H. Brown; piano solo, Master Robert Spencer; recitation, Miss Malachuk; piano solo, Mrs. James Sanborn and John W. Stott. An address was given by the pastor, Rev. A. St. John, of Lowell. The proceeds of the affair are to be used for improvements on the interior of the building. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation to Rev. Dr. Chamber of a handsome portrait of himself, a gift from the guild.

Willing to Be Bryan's
Running Mate

LINCOLN, Neb., June 28.—Joshua Quincy of Massachusetts, formerly intimate friend of Grover Cleveland, who bolted Bryan in 1896, has been the most important visitor here in all the list of visitors from every part of the country. Mr. Quincy is now one of the strongest supporters Bryan can boast. Mr. Bryan admitted this much after he and Mr. Quincy held a conference lasting three hours, immediately after which Mr. Quincy started for Denver. Mr. Bryan was highly pleased with the visit and alluded to it with gratification as indicating the return to the party of the great body of the democrats who refused to follow his standard 12 years ago.

Children Take Part in
Temperance Parade

BOSTON, June 28.—More than 6000 children, and several hundred men and women, who acted as escort to the boys and girls, took part in the second annual parade of the Holy Family temperance league through the South End yesterday afternoon.

The procession started at the corner of Tremont and Dartmouth streets promptly at 2:30 o'clock, when the chief marshal, Maj. John J. Leonard, gave the word. Between 2 and 4 o'clock the long column passed before Rev. Mr. William H. O'Connell, who, with the priests of the cathedral and Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Gibson, S. J., the president of Boston college, reviewed the marching thousands.

When the Knights of the Sacred Heart from St. Joseph's church, Somerville, a uniformed command, had brought the procession to a close, the archbishop expressed himself as decidedly pleased with the showing made.

The archbishop said, in reply to a question, "Yes, indeed, a great sight. Most encouraging."

It was a happy day for those who for several years have striven to establish the Holy Family temperance league, chief among them being Rev. Fr. Francis J. Muller of St. Leo's church, Dorchester, the founder.

BANNERS AWARDED.

Two prize banners were awarded. One was for the best-appearing command and the second for the parish that sent the largest number of children in participation. The first was awarded to the boys and girls of St. Michael's church, Hudson.

Their appearance surely was deserving, for all along the route the applause was almost unceasing.

The children of St. Augustine's church in South Boston, 300 strong, easily carried off the banner for the largest number.

The procession was carried out in a businesslike way under the efficient management of Maj. Leonard's staff, with some half-hundred prominent temperance workers.

The object of the parade was to demonstrate the work of the Holy Family temperance league, spoken of by those affiliated with it as the most sensible and systematic organization with which to combat the evils of intemperance.

The idea is to instill into the minds of the children by continuous education the habit of temperance can work in the home and in every branch of life. Then, through the child, the poison reaches the home and results in better conditions there.

MRS. SCHWAB'S MOTHER DEAD.

PITTSBURG, June 28.—News was received here today of the death last night of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Kinsey, mother of Mrs. Charles M. Schwab, at the summer home of the steel magnate at Loretta, Pa. She was also the mother of A. C. Kinsey, president of the Carnegie steel company. She was 72 years old, and was twice married, first to Reuben Kinsey and later to Alonzo Kinsey.

by persons who enjoy Mr. Bryan's confidence that Mr. Quincy is in accord with all the principles enunciated by the Nebraska platform, which will be carried to Denver as the candidate's last complete expression on the most important national issues, it is known that he assured Mr. Bryan that even should the Massachusetts delegation not be able to modify the injunction and federal license planks, the democracy of that state will give earnest support to the ticket. It is also known that Mr. Quincy brought word to Mr. Bryan that William L. Douglas, who was elected governor of Massachusetts in 1904 in spite of the big majority by which President Roosevelt swept that state, in no sense an aspirant for the vice presidential nomination at Denver. At the same time Mr. Bryan was told that Douglas would take the nomination for second place should it be given him without a struggle and that this would assure the swinging of Massachusetts into the democratic column in November.

Mr. Bryan listened with marked interest to the representations made to him by Mr. Quincy, and, although he did not say outright that Ex-Gov. Douglas would be entirely acceptable to him, he made it plain that he would be especially pleased should the eastern contingent unite on a man for second place, and by presenting a solid front at the convention obtain his nomination.

LATTER IS UNDER ARREST

And is Being Held Without Bail

NEWPORT, R. I., June 28.—John Arsenault, aged 15, a member of a prominent family here, struck and probably fatally injured Joseph Foster, aged 42, here last night, about 6:30. The lad is in jail, having been refused bail, and a crowd is watching the bulletins issued from the Foster home in Centre street. Arsenault gave himself up to the police and described the affair to them. His story is substantiated by seven youthful friends who were with him.

The young man said he and his friends were playing in the wagon yard of William C. Grow, a wheelwright, which is opposite the Foster home, and over which Foster watched while the plant was not in operation.

Foster ordered them away and, the boys declare, accompanied this command by throwing a stick at them. Young Arsenault struck him on the jaw with his fist, and then turned and fled. He looked back and saw Foster clasp his hands to his head and slowly sink to the spot and the man unconscious, helped to get him to his home. He then went to the police, explained what he had done and gave himself up.

ARE THE SIGNERS SORRY THEY SIGNED?

As a matter of fact, 'twas a wonderful act,
When the fathers in seventy-six
Made the colonies free by concurrent decree
And their names to the same did affix.
But, alas, when the great Declaration they signed,
The big noise they would cause they had never in mind!

²
If the patriot sires who enkindled the fires
Wherein liberty's beacons still burn
Are aware of the noise that is made by the boys,
In their tombs they must tremble and turn;
Every signer must rise in his large white cravat
And remark to the militant celebrant, "Scat!"

³
There are times when I think that their spirits must shrink
And their shades they must shudder and shake,
For the deafening din of their progeny kin
Is enough to keep dead men awake,
And I don't understand why it is that the sons
Cannot honor the sires save with crackers and guns.

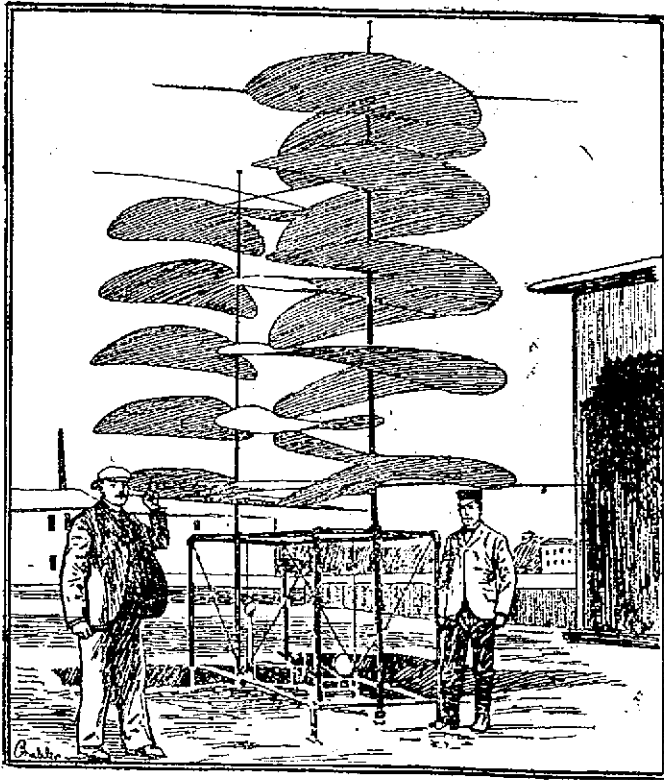

⁴
Now, it isn't that I'm so opposed to a "time"
On the glorious Fourth of July,
But the "Let Us Alone" motto should, you must own,
To the dead as the living apply.
And we shouldn't with clamor be, oh, so unkind
As to make the old signers regret that they signed!

A FLYING MACHINE THAT FLIES.

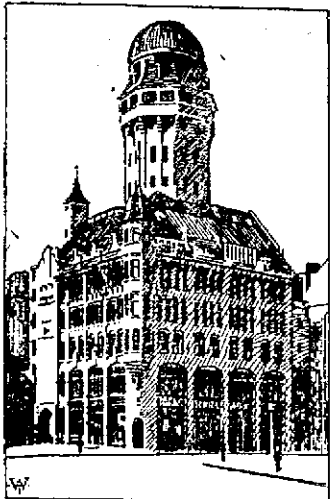

The cut shows the new Wedekind flying machine, which is kept aloft by a series of spiral helices. This method seems to be a practical realization of Jules Verne's forecast in "The Clipper of the Clouds." Thus another of the clever Frenchman's predictions has been fulfilled.

A NEW AMUSEMENT FOR GERMAN CHILDREN.

The picture illustrates a new amusement which is very popular at the Hamburg zoological gardens. There is a large collection of giant tortoises at this resort, and children are permitted to ride on them. Each child carries a stick with a head of lettuce attached to the end, and this is kept dangling in front of the tortoise.

FOR AMATEUR ASTRONOMERS.
The building shown herewith is in Zurich, Switzerland, and is a public observatory which is open to any one who wishes to make an observation. A small fee is charged for the use of certain instruments, but all are welcome to the privileges of the establishment.

COUNT TOLSTOY AS A PIANO PLAYER.

The cut is from a recent photograph of Tolstoy and his daughter at the piano. Among the many accomplishments of the wonderful old Russian his command of the technique of the piano is most amazing. Even at his advanced age and in spite of his poor health he still plays the works of the classical masters with the touch of a virtuoso.

A HIGHLY PRIZED PROTEGE OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

The splendid specimen of the American bison shown in the picture is king of the herd of seventy maintained by Uncle Sam in Yellowstone park. Realizing that the buffalo was in danger of becoming extinct, President Roosevelt and the American Bison society have taken measures to prevent the threatened loss. Canada also is in possession of at least 500 buffaloes.

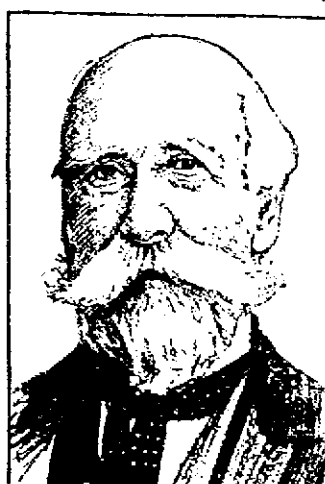

A NEWLY WEDDED ROYAL PAIR.

The marriage of Prince William of Sweden and the Russian Grand Duchess Marie was celebrated recently at the Russian royal palace at Tsarskoe-Selo in the presence of a large number of European royalties. Although the prince is a staunch Lutheran, it is understood that the new princess will remain in the Orthodox church if she prefers.

THE OLDEST PEER.

Lord Gwydyr is chiefly remarkable from the fact that he is the oldest member of the British house of lords. He has recently celebrated his ninety-eight birthday and is still in the best of health and acts as high sheriff of Ipswich.

A UNIQUE PET.

The cut shows the odd pet belonging to "Tums" Cavill, a professional swimmer. The little seal followed Cavill about in the water one day and seemed so desirous of making his acquaintance that the swimmer adopted him. The baby seal is devoted to his master and is so tame that he likes to sleep in Cavill's arms.

FAMILY STARVING

The Mother Passed Away Early Friday Morning

Although Dr. Meigs, acting medical examiner, has signed the death certificate giving "heart trouble" as the cause of death, neighbors and others are of the opinion that Mrs. Stanislaus Skocylas died of starvation. Her death occurred shortly after five o'clock Friday morning at her home, rear of 35 Williams street.

Dr. Dugdale was summoned and made immediate response but the woman was dead when he arrived at the poverty-stricken home. Looking about him and taking in the terrible imprint of poverty on the home and then turning to the emaciated form upon the apology for a bed, the doctor was led to believe that the woman's death was due to starvation.

Dr. Dugdale immediately proceeded to interest himself in the story of the woman's sickness and death. He learned that she had been sick for several weeks and that for the last six months the family, including the mother, father and four children had been on the brink of starvation and that the only support they received was from their neighbors and the latter had but little to spare.

The doctor learned that Stanislaus Skocylas has been in Lowell for about two years and has not worked for one solid year. He is a mill operative and claims that he has been unable to obtain work, but from the conversation that Dr. Dugdale had with neighbors of the Skocylas, through an interpreter, it seemed that Mrs. Skocylas thought her husband was rather halfhearted in his attempts to find work and that on several occasions she had accused him of being lazy.

The doctor further learned that on Thursday night before retiring, and while the four little ones, the youngest eight months and the oldest seven years, were crying for bread, Mrs. Skocylas, sick unto death, upbraided her husband because of his inability to support his family and charged him with not having made an honest effort to find work. To these accusations, the neighbors said, Skocylas did not make answer, and upon waking at 3 o'clock in the morning and crying that she and her children were starving, the sick and distracted woman again opened the flood gates of her wrath upon her husband.

Then came the sad and sudden end. The state of excitement into which she had thrown herself was too much for her poorly nourished body and grief-wrecked brain. She developed convulsions and died at a few minutes after 5 o'clock. Her irritability and weak condition was undoubtedly superinduced, to a certain extent, by the very hot weather, but Dr. Dugdale is of the opinion that had she been properly nourished her death would not have been recorded.

Doctors who visited the house previous to her death told of the terrible poverty that prevailed there, and on May 15 the family was helped by the charity department of the city. That was the last Mr. Courtney heard of the family until Saturday afternoon when two Poles, compatriots of Skocylas, called at the city farm and said that the family was starving. Mr. Courtney attended immediately to the case, but that was after Mrs. Skocylas had passed away.

Upon his arrival at the house and learning the story of the woman's death, Dr. Dugdale notified Dr. Meigs who signed the death certificate as herein stated.

NEW AERO CLUB

Gaslight Co. Will Furnish Land and Gas

Pres. Smith and Sec. McKenna of the board of trade held a conference with Mr. George S. Motley of the Lowell Gaslight company today, relative to the establishment of a park for an Aero club in Lowell for the purpose of having balloon ascensions occur in this city. Mr. Motley stated that the Lowell Gaslight company would encourage the proposition of establishing an aero park in this city. He stated further that the company would not only assign the club a five acre lot in the vicinity of its works for an aero park but would also manufacture a certain kind of gas especially suited for balloons, at an additional expense to the company and would furnish in addition the necessary fuel and the necessary labor. Sec. McKenna will lose no time in acquainting Mr. Charles J. Glidden with Mr. Motley's kind offer. It is proposed to have two ascensions from Lowell daily.

$20,000 DAMAGES

Mrs. Annie J. Hooper was awarded a verdict of $20,000 damages against the Maine Central railroad Saturday for injuries received in Bangor, Me., Oct. 2, 1903. The jury in the superior court deliberated all day and all night Friday before coming to an agreement. It was the second suit brought by the plaintiff.

In the first suit brought by Mrs. Hooper she was awarded $10,000, but the verdict was set aside as being against the weight of evidence.

Mrs. Hooper, who lives in Lowell, was a passenger on the train arriving in Bangor at 3 o'clock on the morning of the day named. The station was not fully lighted and she says that the step from the car to the ground was longer than she anticipated, causing her to fall. While she was picking up her bag an engine or train on a parallel track struck her, injuring her severely. The railroad company maintained that she left the train before it came to a full stop.

MATRIMONIAL

The marriage of Thomas J. Harney of Lynn and Mary A. Riley daughter of Patrick Riley, took place Thursday at St. Patrick's church, residence, Rev. Fr. Callahan officiating.

The bride looked charming in white silk tulle with blue lace trimmings and a large picture hat. She carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Annie Riley, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a white embroidered pattern suit and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Margaret Riley was maid of honor and wore a pink silk costume. Matthew L. Harvey, brother of the groom, was best man. A reception followed at the home of the bride on Broadway, at which only the immediate relatives were present. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful presents, among them being a silver service from Mr. Paul, proprietor of the City hotel, where the bride was formerly employed, and a substantial check from the P. J. Harvey company, where the groom is a valued employee. The happy couple left on the 9.30 train for New York and Atlantic City and will be at home to their friends at 25 Beacon Hill avenue, Lynn, after Sept. 1.

VACATION AT WARRENVILLE. The Warren company of Warrenville has posted a notice of a ten days' vacation beginning today with the reminder that employees need not ask for a vacation later on.

FACTIONAL FIGHT

Believed to Be Responsible for $60,000 Attachment

There are those who intimate that an interesting story is that to develop in the case of the attachment of $60,000 against George R. Chandler, in an action published, exclusively, in The Sun on Saturday.

Those interested in the affair, lawyers and others, are loathe to talk about it but those who claim to know say that the Ministry-at-Large has in a way been divided against itself and that the present trouble is more or less of a factional fight.

There is, possibly, more or less truth in this statement, but the main trouble hangs on Mr. Chandler's refusal to give up the whole or any part of the funds which amount to some $100,000 in which the interest of the Nesmith fund is not calculated.

Mr. Chandler refuses to give up the funds because he claims an irregularity in the election of a treasurer. Mr. Chandler is assistant cashier at the Union bank and was treasurer of the Ministry-at-Large until the last annual meeting. At that time there was a contest that was tried out in the board of trustees and Mr. Chandler was defeated by one vote. He claimed, however, that one vote was illegally cast against him, and he refused to surrender the books. Recently a sub-committee authorized City Solicitor Hill, who is counsel for the Ministry-at-Large, to bring legal proceedings, if necessary, against Mr. Chandler to recover the books and the money.

George H. Spaulding appears as counsel for Mr. Chandler and so far as can be learned is Mr. Chandler's intention to have the matter tried out in the courts.

Asked this afternoon if he had anything to say relative to the attachment, Mr. Chandler said: "I have nothing to say on my side of it, not at this time. They can do all the talking they want to."

Besides the contributions received from the corporations, and they are very significant, the public gives generously to the Ministry-at-Large, and on top of this comes the interest on the Nesmith fund, which amounts to about $100,000 a year.

Mr. Nesmith at his death, some time in the 40's, left $25,000 in trust for the poor of Lowell and the distribution of the interest of that money at six per cent, the city having agreed to accept the $25,000 at six per cent, to be devoted to charity and distributed among the poor of Lowell by the trustees under the will, so it would seem that the distribution of the interest on the bequest, amounting to about $1500 a year, might, if the trustees so desired, be distributed through some channel other than the Ministry-at-Large. This, however, has nothing to do with the proceedings now pending.

PUBLIC BATHS BATTLE RAGING

Pressing Need of them in Lowell

The need of public baths in Lowell is demonstrated evenings, Sundays and holidays on the banks of the Merrimack and Concord rivers, where hundreds of men and boys undress preparatory to a plunge in the water. It is little less than marvelous that more drowning accidents are not recorded when one takes into consideration the number of persons who bathe in these rivers. A great many of them are unable to swim and included in the number who cannot swim are some of the most venturesome.

Besides the danger of drowning, those who bathe in the Concord river are lucky to escape blood poisoning. Men and boys are seen bathing in places where the water is actually filthy and they come out with more dirt attached than when they went in.

There is another serious objection to the practice of bathing in the Merrimack river, especially along the mill yard where men and boys undress and dress in plain view of pedestrians and persons passing in teams and automobiles. This practice has been complained of and it is up to the police to see that those who resort there for bathing purposes shall dress and undress elsewhere than in the open and within 20 yards or so of the highway.

THUNDER STORM

IN THE CITY EARLY THIS MORNING

An electric storm broke over Lowell early last night after what had proved to be one of the most oppressive days of the summer. Humanity sweated all day and the only way to get relief was either to keep indoors or else enjoy a cool ride on the electric cars. It is needless to state that the Boston & Northern did a rushing business, the Lakeview and other suburban cars being packed during the day and early evening.

Shortly after darkness set in threatening clouds gathered in the north-west and the roar of thunder and flashes of lightning could be heard and seen in the distance, indicating that a storm was approaching. Later rain fell, but the storm was not heavy.

Early this morning, however, a heavy storm broke over Lowell and the rain fell in a regular downpour. It rained for a considerable length of time and everyone thought that today would be cool, but the rain brought little relief except to vegetables and plants.

THE PLUMBERS

HELD ANNUAL OUTING AT WILLOW DALE

The Master Plumbers of this city went to Willow Dale this afternoon for the purpose of enjoying themselves, but at the time of going to press the weather conditions were such that it was impossible to get any of the outdoor sports started. A red-hot baseball game was scheduled as was a bowling game and other sports, after which there is to be a good supper served.

MATRIMONIAL

The marriage of Thomas J. Harney of Lynn and Mary A. Riley, daughter of Patrick Riley, took place Thursday at St. Patrick's parish residence, Rev. Fr. Callahan officiating.

The bride looked charming in white silk tulle with blue lace trimming and a large picture hat. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Miss Agnes Riley, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a white embroidered pattern suit and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Maternal gift was made of honor and wore a pink silk costume. Maternal gift was brother of the groom, was best man. A reception followed at the home of the bride on Broadway at which only the immediate relatives were present.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful presents, among them being a silver service from Mr. Paul, proprietor of the club store, where the bride was formerly employed, and a substantial check from the P. J. Harney company, where the groom is a valued employee. The happy couple left on the 3:30 train for New York and Atlantic City and will be at home to their friends at 25 Beacon Hill avenue, Lynn, after Sept. 1.

VACATION AT WARRENVILLE

The Warren company of Warrenville has posted a notice of a ten days vacation beginning today with the reminder that employees need not ask for a vacation later on.

FACTIONAL FIGHT

Believed to Be Responsible for $60,000 Attachment

There are those who insinuate that an interesting story is likely to develop in the case of the attachment of $60,000 against George B. Chandler—in an action, as published, exclusively in The Sun on Saturday.

Those interested in the affair, lawyers and others, are loathe to talk about it, but those who claim to know say that the Ministry-at-Large has, in a way, been divided against itself and that the present trouble is more or less of a factional fight.

There is, possibly, more or less truth to this statement, but the main trouble hinges on Mr. Chandler's refusal to give up the whole or any part of the funds which amount to some $10,000 in which the interest of the Nezenth fund is not calculated.

Mr. Chandler refuses to give up the funds because he claims an irregularity in the election of a treasurer. Mr. Chandler is assistant cashier at the Union bank and was treasurer of the Ministry-at-Large until the last annual meeting. At that time there was a contest that was tried out in the board of trustees and Mr. Chandler was defeated by one vote. He claimed, however, that one vote was illegally cast against him, and he refused to surrender the books. Recently a sub-committee authorized City Solicitor Hill, who is bringing legal proceedings, if necessary, against Mr. Chandler to recover the books and the money.

George H. Spaulding appears as counsel for Mr. Chandler and so far as can be learned it is Mr. Chandler's intention to have the matter tried out in the courts.

Asked this afternoon if he had anything to say relative to the attachment, Mr. Chandler said: "I have nothing to say on my side of it, not at this time. They can do all the talking they want to."

Besides the contributions received from the corporations, and they are very significant, the public gives generously to the Ministry-at-Large, and on top of this comes the interest on the Nezenth fund, which amounts to about $1500 a year.

Mr. Nesmith at his death, some time in the 10's, left $25,000 in trust for the poor of Lowell and the distribution of the interest of that money at six per cent, the city having agreed to accept the $25,000 at six per cent, to be devoted to charity and distributed among the poor of Lowell by the trustees under the will, so it would seem that the distribution of the interest on the bequest, amounting to about $1500 a year, might, if the trustees so desired, be distributed through some channel other than the Ministry-at-Large. This, however, has nothing to do with the proceedings now pending.

SECRETARY TAFT

Will Give Up Cabinet Work Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, June 29.—When William H. Taft leaves his office in the war department tomorrow he will have finished his labors as secretary of war. His successor, Gen. Luke Wright, will take up the work where Mr. Taft leaves off and will continue it along the same lines of general policy.

Before the war secretary relinquishes his task, however, a good deal of routine work will have to be disposed of and even before he left his 10 street residence this morning he had plunged into the work ahead of him. The time is short but the secretary expects to turn over to his successor a practically clean desk.

Charles Taft who arrived here yesterday from Cincinnati had a further talk early today with the secretary about his personal and political plans. Arrangements practically have been completed by which the secretary and Mrs. Taft and their young son Charlie will spend the fourth of July at Hot Springs, Va. There they are expected to remain practically continuously until the first of September.

One of the big tasks the secretary was confronted with today was the signing of thousands of letters in response to congratulatory messages.

MORMON ELDERS

WERE EGGED BY CROWD DURING PREACHING.

ROLLA, Mo., June 29.—Egged by the crowd to which they were preaching and drenched from water from a fire hose, twenty Mormon elders who arrived here yesterday were forced to take to their heels last night and promise to make no further effort to conduct services here.

$5000 PENSION

CONGRESS TO VOTE ONE TO MRS. CLEVELAND.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—It is thought likely that congress will provide a pension of $5000 a year for Mrs. Grover Cleveland, following precedent. Mrs. Garfield has received a pension of $5000 each year since 1882. Mrs. Harrison, the only other president's widow now living was not pensioned but she was Mr. Harrison's second wife and married him several years after his term as president expired.

In cases heretofore where President's widows have been pensioned it happened that the president had also been a soldier, but the pension was not granted on account of his military service. While Mr. Cleveland had never done military duty, he was none the less commander-in-chief of the army and navy. The rate of pension which congress has habitually granted to president's widows is $5000 a year. It was in 1882 that the precedent of granting this sum was established.

He entered Harvard college in the fall of 1901 and the Harvard medical school in the fall of 1904 as a senior of the college on leave of absence, having completed the work necessary for the A. B. degree in three years. At the last examination for internes at the Boston city hospital Dr. Jantzen was appointed interne for a term of sixteen months beginning next March. He was also appointed pathological interne for a service of eight months beginning next July.

LAID AT REST

Funeral of John P. Mahoney Today

The funeral of former Assessor John P. Mahoney, one of Lowell's best known and most highly esteemed citizens took place this morning and was largely attended by many prominent citizens from out-of-town who joined with the friends and neighbors of the deceased in paying a final tribute of respect. Despite the expressed wish of the family of the deceased that no flowers be sent, many unaware of the fact sent a wealth of beautiful floral tributes which were laid upon the grave. The funeral cortege left the house of mourning, in Butterfield street, at 8:50 o'clock and proceeded to St. Patrick's church, where the deceased for an entire lifetime had been a prominent and devout attendant. High mass of requiem was sung by Rev. John McHugh and the choir, under the direction of Michael J. Johnson, rendered the Gregorian plain chant. At the offertory Mr. Andrew A. McCarthy sang "Gloria Salvator Mundi" and he also sustained the solos in the "Libera." As the remains were being borne from the church the choir rendered "De Profundis." Present at the services were representatives of nearly all of the older families of the parish and well known citizens of every walk of life. The principal assessors and their clerks attended in a body and nearly every department of city hall was represented at the church service. The following organizations, of which the deceased was a popular member, were represented: A. O. H., national president, Matthew Connelley; state president, John J. Rourke; state vice-president, James O'Donnell; state chaplain, Rev. Thomas H. McLaughlin; state treasurer, Daniel Red-Donnelly; and Messrs. Rooney, Carlesley and Thomas Gavin, James J. Kennedy and Thomas H. Kennedy. The ushers at the house and church were Dr. Frank O'Sullivan and Matthew Mahoney. The bearers were Messrs. Thomas O'Sullivan, Edward P. Slattery, James Mahoney, Patrick Gilbride and

By Means of "Underground" Railroads

CHICAGO, June 29.—In U. S. District Attorney Sim's crusade against the traffic in alien women an "underground" railroad similar to that used before the Civil war in smuggling the negroes from the south into northern states, has been unearthed by immigration inspectors and secret service men.

The system of bringing alien girls into the United States by way of Canada in spite of the vigilance of the immigration officials is said to have been divulged by one of the girls examined by the board of inquiry. According to her story, girls are brought from France, Russia and other foreign countries to St. Johns, N. F., and to Anticosti Island, near the mouth of the St. Lawrence river. From these places they are taken to Montreal in private yachts and up the Richelieu river to Roussin Point. Both Mr. Sims and Dr. Davies, inspector in charge of the Chicago immigration bureau, acknowledged yesterday that they had learned of this underground railroad and that steps had been taken to break it up.

SUPREME COURT

Decides Against the Appeal of Walker

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., June 29.—Word received here today by Treasurer Stanley of the Savings Bank of New Britain states that the supreme court of Mexico has decided against the appeal of William F. Walker, the absconding treasurer of the bank who has been fighting extradition. The decision of the supreme court orders that Walker be turned over to the United States authorities. The information came through a telegram from the state department to Gov. Woodruff which was as follows: "The Governor of Connecticut: Department advises by telegram from Ambassador Thompson, Mexican supreme court has granted extradition of Walker and telegraphs Encarnacion authorities to turn him over to American officers." Signed: "Alva Ade."

STATE DEPT. ALERT

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The state department is carefully watching the situation along the northern border of Mexico. The officials feel that the international aspect of the trouble will be adjusted satisfactorily and every effort will be made for the preservation of neutrality. The expected return of Enrique Creel, the Mexican ambassador, probably will be followed by conferences between him and Acting Secretary of State Ade which are likely to be productive of much good in the maintenance of the closest possible relations between the two governments in the matter. Attention has been given here to the allegations that the present insurrectionist propaganda was spread by agitators who used United States domain as their base.

THE IRISH LEAGUE

Democratic Leaders Arranging Details of Denver Meeting

Rev. C. T. Russell, of Pittsburgh, Pa., addressed a large audience in Associate hall yesterday afternoon, taking as the subject of his discourse, "The Overthrow of Satan's Empire." The reverend gentleman spoke in part as follows:

Explain the matter how we will, the fact must be confessed that according to our own experiences and the records of history our race has for centuries been under a reign of sin and death unexplainable except in the light of the Bible, the divine revelation. The downward tendency with which we were perfections experienced by all are explained only by the scriptural declaration that we were born in sin and shapen in iniquity. In vain have we endeavored to reconcile the present and past experiences of our race with love or even justice—except as we obtain light upon the situation from His Word. It is but natural that our first thought should be toward the Almighty

God, the Creator, is the King and ruler of the earth; and it is with considerable surprise, therefore, that we find the scriptures teaching to the contrary, that Satan is the "prince of this world," (John 14: 30), the "god of this world" (2 Cor. 4: 4), that night and morning star. As a "covering cherub" (Eze. 13, 14), his rank, nature or plane of being was higher than that of the ordinary angel. He is referred to as a gorgeous prince among the holy ones called the "morning stars," (Job. 38: 7) the angels came forth.

According to the scriptures Satan was a great and holy angel of a very high order. Before he fell from his honorable station, he was known as Lucifer, the bright one, and was the second highest in the hierarchy of heaven.

like all of God's intelligent creation he was made in God's likeness, with liberty of will—a free moral agent. Before there was any opportunity for attempting a rebellion against the divine sovereignty we are informed that Lucifer was proud

The test of Satan's loyalty came, no doubt, when he beheld our first parents in Eden, a new creation with the powers of pre-creation for the development of their own species, a power which even the angels did not possess. The temptation is obvious; Satan saw that if he could obtain possession of our first parents, all of their children would be under his control.

Harken to our Lord's description of Satan, the prince of this world, and his explanation of how the devil obtained his great power. His

...among mankind. Our Lord says, "He was a murderer from the beginning and abode not in the truth." (John 8:44), and again declares of him that he is the father of lies, the first great liar. Following this clue we find to see in what respect Satan was the first great liar and murderer. To our astonishment the record in Genesis is most explicit. After God had informed our first parents that disobedience to his command respecting the tree of knowledge would bring a death penalty, that old serpent, the devil and Satan contradicted God, declaring that this would not be true. He lied, and then became the father of liars. God's words were, "In the day thou eatest whereof, dying thou shalt die." Satan's words were, "Ye shall not surely die." The lines were strictly drawn. To help along his lie and thus to deceive Mother Eve, Satan posed as her truest friend and well-wisher, picturing the Al-highly as jealous, and wishing to deprive them of knowledge and keep them in ignorance that he might maintain their subservience through that ignorance. Thus Mother Eve was beguiled, as St. Paul says, into thinking for the Almighty as ignoble and selfish, conspiring against the interests of his creatures and threatening them with death, which the old serpent had assured her God was unable to inflict. (2 Cor. 11:3.) Alas! Through that

Thus Satan was the murderer of our race, whose number is now reasonably estimated at 20,000,000,000 born in sin and chosen to inherit hell.

Let all who rejoice in the coming of the Lord's kingdom and the reign of the prince of peace also that the overthrow of Satan's empire of sin and darkness and miserable degradation and ignorance is near at hand; and let us who by the grace of God come to understand the divine plan more and more, thank

...ence of every principle of righteousness and supporting the divine word and divine attributes, and living in harmony with the divine plan of the ages! Thus may we be the grace of

An important meeting of the United Irish League was held last evening in A. O. H. hall, Edmund Costello presiding. The 'Hot for the Beach' picnic was discussed, and a preference was expressed for the excursion to be held on the 10th inst. instead of on July 5, as the date for the excursion to the beach. The matter was not finally settled, however, as a committee is to wait upon the management of Wonders, in relation to certain inducements for enlarging the attendance. A committee was appointed to bring in a list of officers to be elected at the next meeting. The new officers who have been elected last night but that owing to the entertainment program and other business matters the hour has come too late to put through the election will be carried out, however, at the next meeting which will be held next Sunday evening, and at that meeting the new officers will be installed and a list of delegates to the convention in September will be chosen. It is understood that there and he a complete reorganization. The next night's meeting the membership took a great interest and about twenty-five new members were admitted. A very fine entertainment program was given including piano playing by Mr. Hamill Byron of Centralville, a young man who may be termed the Paderewski of Lowell. He rendered a medley of Irish airs in a manner that enthralled the audience and caused everybody to marvel at his great command of the instrument. Miss Nellie Nestor, a well known singer, sang a couple of Irish set pieces, fine in voice and won much applause. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Monahan. Mr. James Coughlin of the Sunlight shoe store, "recited" stirring Irish story, "Shamus O'Brien," in a manner that raised great enthusiasm among the audience. He was encouraged and responded with a humorous parody purporting to be the lecture of a quack doctor on his "cure" for various remedies. It was very comical and won with great ability by Mr. Coughlin.

A rising vote of thanks was tendered those who participated in the entertainment program. The picnic committee will hold a meeting on Friday evening to advance the arrangements for the "Ho! for the Beach!"

BUFFALO BILL SHOW
 WILD WEST EXHIBITION WILL PRESENT NOVELTIES.
 With the

and a host of reckless horsemen on western bronchos, there will be a genuine atmosphere of the open plains and rugged frontier life in the exhibition to be given in this city by the exhibitors' wild west and congress of rough riders of the world. There will be scenes of peace and brutal warfare between Indians in one of the scenic features. The Holladay E. Ranch, which will show the pastures of the plainsmen and cowboy and will feature a vigorous Indian attack upon the whites, a real-life and final tour of the country, the Battle of Summit Springs will be the leading features of the entertainment. In this scene one of the deciding conflicts in Indian warfare will be reproduced, with Buffalo Bill re-creating the battle as he originally played in the battle—led at his hands, Chief Tall Bull and after his defeat by the Indians. Still another type of western warfare will be illustrated in the Great Train Hold-up, in which the famous hard-lit-hustlers of the line riders will be shown in conflict with desperadoes who have robbed the express car, and 'held-up' the passengers on the train. In this scene a practical engine, practical horses and the essentials of real railroading will be shown, and there will be pictures in every detail of the hold-up. The four riders will display various feats of horsemanship. There will be a quadrangle in horseback, branches and maneuvers in displays of different tricks. There will be a 'pencho busting' and other forms of horsemanship by riders galloping from the Far East and once will visit every way the exhibition will be a feature in operatic entertainment. Every performance Buffalo Bill will be in the saddle at the head of the company, directing the performance.

FAREWELL SERVICE

Held in Branch St. Tabernacle
Yesterday

The Church to Build on New Lot
Farther Up in Highlands—First Pastor Delivered Sermon—Letters From Former Pastors and Members

Saying farewell to a house of worship is a little bit out of the ordinary and as there is a touch of sadness to all farewells so is there to the adieu that goes out from the hearts of those who, after 20 years of worship, hear for the last time the echo of His words within the walls of the church where they found solace, peace and happiness for so many years.

Such was the occasion at the Branch Street Tabernacle last night when the congregation gathered to worship for the last time within its walls. The members and friends of the church were there and while a peculiar sadness prevailed over all, yet there was the comforting spirit of faith and hope that added to the fervor of the meeting.

There were special services both morning and evening and a musical program of superior quality. Numbers by the quartet and the full choir were beautifully rendered and there was congregational singing of the old familiar hymns. The pulpit and choir both were beautifully decorated and it seemed a floral offering as an accompaniment to the farewell. The front of the pulpit was banked with palms and cut flowers and there was a floral hanging to the choir loft. The rail of the loft was wound with evergreen and the effect as a whole was very charming.

On the platform were former pastors of the church, Rev. C. C. Wallace, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church; Rev. Charles Upton and others identified with the Branch Street society.

The first pastor of the Branch Street church, Rev. E. A. Whittier, of Lawrence, delivered an address of a reminiscent character and of great interest, especially to those of the church. The following words marked the close of his address:

"But remember friends, the heart of God is not in one place. Remember that no matter how beautiful or how plain the walls of a church, God will still be in its midst. I am an optimist. I am hopeful of the future. I believe that there should be a combination of the Baptist churches of this city, and I can see such a combination coming in the near future for the glory of God. This is a beautiful opportunity for you to consecrate yourself to God. Do the thing that is right, that is manly, that is Christlike."

Rev. O. E. Mallory, the fourth pastor of the church, spoke in what he himself termed a "fatherly" vein. He said:

"This is a sacred moment. Churches are compelled to change their conditions and places by force of circumstances. I saw the inevitable before I left there."

REV. ASA REED DILTS.

and at one time attempted to do what you are doing now. I had in my heart selected the spot for the new edifice, but the time was not ripe for the change.

"There is now a necessity for its taking place. But the church of God is not in wood and stone. The church consists in living souls consecrated to God. This is a crisis, and it is such an important one that it is not surprising that there should be different minds."

"Great things have been done here. I trust I shall not be considered weak if I mention some things which occurred in my life here. There are things I would have done differently. There are some things which ought to have been done differently. Most of you know that while I was here some 12 young men went out into the ministry and are now scattered over the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific and doing glorious work; all but one, who has degenerated into an actor."

"And there were eight missionaries who went out from here. Some of them have struck their tents and have gone to glory. If you go back into the past you will find that this church has lived to some purpose. There are great things that have been wrought, and as one thinks of them it does come one up at a bit."

"This is an epoch in the life of the church, and I believe that it is an epoch which will leave you on a higher plane. Be loyal, therefore. Let your light so shine that let it shine now. I am living and fighting on the fundamentals of the old gospel. We are getting to the end of some of the new, those things come and go, and after they have been tested by those who would make us wiser, we find we are coming back to the word again."

"Keep your hearts together for Christ's sake and the glory of the kingdom will be with you. Have you any conception of what church and God is? The earliest institution of God on earth is church. It is a great thing, my brother, if you are a member of a Chris-tion church, and it is a greater thing if you are a live member. So go out together and be ready, for He has said He will come again."

Communion service was held at the conclusion of the regular service. Future gatherings of the church will be held in Highland hall until the new church is built. The Friday evening prayer meetings and the regular Sunday services will be held there at the regular hours.

At the morning service, yesterday, Rev. Asa Reed Dilts, the pastor, spoke, finding his inspiration in Hebrews. Letters were read from George F. Warren of Jamaica, Long Island; Rev. Thomas S. Sayers of New Bedford; Rev. William A. McKillop of Racine, Wis., and Rev. Benjamin B. Jacques of Corona, Cal.

The letters are appended:

To the Members of the Branch Street Baptist Church, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

When the church was built, nearly 40 years ago, the location was thought ideal; and such it was, at the time, and the crowds of people then in attendance seemed to justify the decision made in relation to the location; but 40 years have wrought great changes in the neighborhood and in other conditions. I put in five (5) years of strenuous labor in the Branch Street church and your work and even the building have a large place in my interest and affections.

I would have been a delight to me to have been with you tomorrow and to once more stand upon the platform where in my earlier ministry I had the pleasure of presenting the gospel to what I thought one of the finest congregations in the land when I looked into the faces of hundreds of noble Christian men and women, of blessed memory.

I preached the first sermon delivered in your church building and I had earnestly hoped to hear the last under the auspices of the old Branch Street church; but it will be impossible. In thought I shall be with you and you have my best wishes for a glorious success of the day. I trust that the action which you have taken in disposing of the property and locating elsewhere will prove to be of wisdom and that the blessing of God may rest upon the work of your faithful pastor and upon the church, in whom we all are so deeply interested. I sincerely regret my inability to be present. With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,
George F. Warren.

Dear Brethren:

I have learned that the church building has been sold and that the church is to be rebuilt at the Highlands. I congratulate you upon the prospect before you, and wish you abundance of blessing. Branch Street meeting house has many sacred memories to all who in the past have been members of the church which has worshipped within its walls. To me it was a place where God gave enlarged vision, deliverance from the mis-fearing spirit, and entrance into a life of sweet fellowship with God through the indwelling Holy Spirit, which has remained unbroken. It was here that I enjoyed the privilege of baptizing my first converts (12 in number). It was my first experience in baptizing into the name of the Trinity, and a memorable night it was. It was in Branch Street church pulpit while preaching from Acts 1:8 that God baptized me in a wonderful way; here where my ordination to the Christian ministry occurred, with sermon by Dr. A. J. Gordon; here where seasons of blessedness and the presence of the Divine Spirit have been often experienced. It was while a member of this church that the development of the Parker Hall mission into the Immanuel Baptist church occurred, its present building dedicated to God, and letters granted to 47 members of Branch Street to form the new church of which I became the first pastor. Language fails to recount the multitudinous blessings enjoyed within these walls. Among many others I am thankful to God that my lot was ever cast among you and Mrs. Sayers joins me in this expression of gratitude. We would love to be with you Sunday, while absent in person will be present in spirit. May the prophecy in Hagai 2:9 be fulfilled to Branch Street church in its new church home—"The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of Hosts; and in this place will I give peace saith the Lord of Hosts."

Cordially yours,
Thomas S. Sayers.

To the Members of Branch Street Baptist Church, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Friends:

Concerning the sale of the Branch Street church property it is no very great surprise to me, for similar conditions on other fields have led to like results. I doubt not but that you have acted wisely and that He who has led still leads. Happy memories cluster round the dear old church of other days and I shall never cease to be thankful for the days spent in Christian service on that field.

I was connected with the Sunday school as pupil and teacher in the days before the building of the large audience room. The old chapel was in those days far too small for the Sunday school and could not nearly accommodate the evening audiences. I was for some time superintendent of the Sunday school; a truly delightful service, because of the Christian fellowship and cooperation of others.

Neither can I forget that it was from that pulpit that I preached my first sermon and found afterward licensed to preach the Gospel.

I do not feel that by the change of location you are in any way defeated or that you are taking a backward step, but rather moving onward to fields of greater opportunity and therefore of greater service in the Kingdom. May the blessing of the Most High rest upon you at your closing service and may the cloud that rested over all things and rest in light and shelter above you in your new tenting place, be the earnest prayer and best wishes of one of your sons in the far off fields of service.

Dear Friends:

Both Mrs. Fuller and myself are pleased to hear the particulars about disposing of the old church and are agreed that under long existing circumstances the church has done the wise thing and feel sure the new location for a meeting house will be highly beneficial. The associations of the old Branch Street church building will ever be dear to countless numbers of souls who have found Christ there, and very many who have found sweet labor there. The past has been glorious, and may the future be more glorious still. Our prayers and best wishes follow you to your new church home.

Mrs. Fuller joins in Christian fellowship.

Sincerely in Him,
Myron D. Fuller.

Members of Branch Street Baptist Church, Lowell, Mass.

Beloved in the Lord:

When I read in the paper some time ago that dear old Branch Street tabernacle was sold, I confess a sense of sadness came over me, but after I had learned the conditions more fully, I said, God is in it, and so it must be all right.

There is no time I think of now with fonder and more sacred memory than that time I was with you in the old church, yet it was not the building, but the body, and God who dwelt in the midst. As I think of you in the new building, and place of meeting, although there are many now, and I doubtless the larger part, whom I do not know—my thoughts will be as pleasant, and my prayer as fervent, as in former days.

May it be of the building you are soon to occupy, that God will say of it what he declared concerning the new temple built at Jerusalem, "I will fill this house with glory, and in this place will I give peace."

Much more is in my heart to write you, but space forbids. May the God of all grace, the Christ of all goodness, and the spirit of all power ever be with and in you, and indeed, may the future hold more of blessing from our God upon you, and service to our master by you, than ever the past has known.

"And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work."

Please pray for us. My wife says "Amen" in this.

Cordially yours in glad service,
B. B. Jacques.

SKULL OF MAN

WITH BULLET HOLE IN IT FOUND
BY HUGH FITZPATRICK.

Hugh J. Fitzpatrick of this city found the skull of a man with a bullet hole from a gun of large calibre in the sand in Chelmsford Saturday. Mr. Fitzpatrick was driving on the Westford road and happened to see the top of the skull sticking out of a sand hill. There was some badly decomposed flesh hanging to it. All of the teeth were in place. The matter was referred to the local police.

It is possible that the man may have been murdered or accidentally shot. Considering the dry place in which the skull was found and its condition, it is safe to say that it had been there over a year, and possibly two years.

HARRY K. THAW

Asks for Jury Trial to Determine
His Sanity

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 29.—

Harry Thaw left here this morning for White Plains. He was in the custody of Under Sheriff Townsend and Deputy Sheriff Edward Havens who took him to Westchester county in obedience to the writ of habeas corpus granted by Justice Mills of the supreme court which commanded the sheriff of Dutchess county to produce Thaw before Judge Mills at White Plains at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Thaw was accompanied by his new counsel, Charles Morsechauser who will present arguments in support of a new trial before a jury to determine Thaw's mental condition. The party went by New York Central to Tarrytown, whence they will go by trolley to White Plains.

THE COURT PROCEEDINGS.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 29.—

Under the proceedings on which Thaw is arranged here today the question of his right to a jury trial will be raised. In the first habeas corpus proceedings before Justice Morsechauser in Poughkeepsie this point was not brought up, as counsel for Thaw was not at that District Attorney Jerome or his assistant Mr. Garvan, will oppose Thaw's application for a trial by jury. Under the proceedings on which Thaw was brought here today Edgar Conner, assistant district attorney of Dutchess county will appear in court to oppose any application for the return of Thaw to the Dutchess county jail.

The Thaw party was joined on the train by Dr. Charles Pilgrim, superintendent of the Hudson river state hospital for the insane at Poughkeepsie who testified as an expert on behalf of Thaw in the last trial. Dr. Amos Baker, assistant superintendent of the Matteawan asylum came down on the same train. He and Thaw shook hands at Tarrytown while waiting for the car to White Plains. They enjoyed the ride down the Hudson.

"It's the first I have seen of the country to any extent in two years," he said. He looked out of the window on the river side all the way commenting on the scenery. He was in fine spirits and declared that his stay in the Poughkeepsie jail had helped him because he was permitted there to have much better food than the simple diet to which he had been restricted at Matteawan.

NEARLY DROWNED

YOUNG WOMAN AERONAUT

WENT DOWN TWICE.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Nearly 10,000 persons watched a woman aeronaut have a narrow escape from drowning yesterday afternoon in the Passaic river near the spot where, only a short time ago, Frel L. Wood, a young aeronaut, sank because he was unable to free himself from an American flag which had become wrapped around him in his descent.

Mrs. Dorothy Mack, wife of Johnny Mack, a professional aeronaut, was the victim. She is only 13 years old, and it was her first flight.

Mack has been giving balloon ascensions at the Hillside Pleasure park at Belleville, N. J. Yesterday his wife prevailed upon him to let her go up in his place.

The balloon ascended rapidly to about 4000 feet, when it sailed off in a northeasterly direction. Mrs. Mack

ROWDY PLAYERS

Fall River Bunch Made Themselves Famous

Nagged at Umpire Through the Entire Game—Howard Was the Bright Star of the Occasion

The 300 fans who attended the Lowell Fall River game at Washington park, Saturday saw all kinds of baseball, but as one fan remarked after the game, "I wouldn't have missed it for $5, nor would I go to see another like it were you to give me $5."

Of all the rowdy exhibitions ever witnessed in Lowell the Fall River bunch put up the rowdiest and the fans were thoroughly disgusted, the only feature that saved the day being the remarkably fine baseball played by the home team. The Fall River players took advantage of the fact that none could be removed from the game without breaking it up, having only 10 or 11 men with them and hence made life miserable for Umpire Joseph O'Brien, who being out of human respect their actions and came back at them at every opportunity. The trouble was started by Manager O'Brien and the principal offenders were Captain Connor, Norris and Donovan, while apparently the only gentlemen on the team during the mixup were Thorneill and Ambrose Kane and it was Kane's gentlemanly explanation of a certain incident to Umpire O'Brien that saved Wornwood a $10 fine. The casualties were as follows: Manager O'Brien ejected from the grounds with full police honors; Captain Connor fined $5; Catcher Norris fined $5 and Shortstop Donovan fined $5.

The trouble was described as it occurred in Saturday's baseball edition and hence a brief explanation will suffice at this time. Manager O'Brien had been put out of the grounds Friday and under a rule of the league he should pay a fine before taking a seat on the bench again. This he didn't do and Umpire O'Brien ordered him out again but told him that he needn't leave the grounds, but go to the grand stand as he could not remain on the bench. It was up to Manager O'Brien to leave at once and then if he thought the umpire was wrong complain to the proper authorities. But instead of doing that he remained on the bench giving hot talk to the umpire with the usual result, a scolding and the arrival of the police. After this incident had been closed Magee hit a ball too hot for Connor to handle cleanly and he got first. Connor immediately let out an oath that could have been heard several blocks away and the umpire promptly ordered him from the game. This started Connor and Norris with more profanity and he was ordered out. Then the umpire found that with two men out the team would be crippled and hence he allowed them to remain and fined each $5. Mr. Donovan butted in at this time and as fast as he was fined $5 he became more fractious until the fines aggregated $35.

All through the game most of the players led by their captain continuously nagged the umpire. Twice while passing the umpire on his way to the first base coach line Capt. Connor brushed against him and while on the coach line on several occasions he left the coach's box and stood within the territory allotted to the coach.

But the brilliancy of Howard's work in center and at the bat removed the bad taste imparted by the visitors in the game.

FIRST INNING.
Messenger was the first player up for the visitors and hit to Ulnice who made a pretty running catch. Kane followed with a strike out and Austin hit to Wolfe and died at first.

In the latter half of the inning the game came near ending in a riot and the home team scored three runs. Vandergift got a single and went to second on a sacrifice. Magee then hit to Connor and reached first on a close decision. It was at this point that the trouble started, which came near resulting in the end of the game.

After twenty minutes delay play was resumed and Magee stole second. Howard hit to center field for two bases scoring Vandergift and Magee. Duff singled to center field scoring Howard. At this point McCarthy was taken out of the game and Wornwood put in the box.

Wolfe struck out and Ulnice hit to Donovan and went out at first.

Score—Lowell 3, Fall River 0.

SECOND INNING.
In the second inning Toomey singled and Thorneill flew out to Zinsar. Connor drew a base on balls. Donovan struck out and Norris flew out to Howard.

Ainsmith flew to Wornwood and Warner drew a base on balls. Vandergift then tried to steal second and was thrown out.

Score—Lowell 2, Fall River 0.

THIRD INNING.
In the third inning the Fall River players started to raise another disturbance and bring the game to an end. Capt. Connor was on the coach line and while the umpire was watching to make a decision on bases Connor bumped into him.

With the home field in this inning Warner struck out two men and kept the visitors from scoring. Wornwood hit to Warner and was out at first. Messenger singled and Kane drew a base on balls. Austin hit to Wolfe who fumbled and the bases were filled. Toomey and Thorneill then struck out. Vandergift flew to Messenger. Magee hit to Wornwood and was out at first, while Howard flew out to Messenger.

Score—Lowell 2, Fall River 0.

FOURTH INNING.
Neither side scored in the fourth inning. Connor struck out much to the delight of the fans. Donovan made a single, but Norris and Wornwood flew out to Howard.

Duff hit to Thorneill and was out at first. Wolfe struck out and Ulnice hit to Toomey and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 3, Fall River.

FIFTH INNING.
Fall River got as far as third in the fifth but failed to score. Messenger flew out to Duff. Kane hit to Vandergift who fumbled. Austin singled to right field and Kane went to third. Toomey struck out and Austin stole second, but Thorneill flew out to Wolfe. The home team scored another run in the fifth inning. Ainsmith hit to Thorneill who threw to first, but Toomey let the ball go through him. He went to second on a sacrifice. Vandergift hit to center field for a single and Messenger failed to connect with the ball allowing Ainsmith to score. Zinsar flew out to Kane and Magee flew to Messenger.

Score—Lowell 4, Fall River 0.

SIXTH INNING.
There was a great batting carnival in the sixth inning and the visitors hammered Warner for four runs and would have been batting for half an hour longer but for the fact that Howard made a beautiful catch.

Connor opened the inning with a single. Donovan sent him to third with another single. Norris flew to Howard and Connor scored on the put out. Wornwood hit to Ulnice who fumbled and the runner reached first. With two men on base, Messenger sent the ball over the fence for a home run and three runs were scored. Kane drew a base on balls. Austin singled, but Kane in trying to steal third was tagged out. Toomey hit to the center field fence and Howard after a long hard run made a beautiful one hand catch, one of the prettiest catches ever made at Washington park.

In the latter half of the inning Howard did another stunt that caused the fans to cheer. As he rushed in from the field after making his catch, the crowd started to cheer and kept cheering while he was at bat. After a couple of balls had been sent over the plate and before the cheering subsided the fans had another chance to cheer for Howard cracked the ball over the right field fence for a home run. Duff and Wolfe struck out and Ulnice hit to Connor and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 5, Fall River 4.

SEVENTH INNING.
The Fall River started some more rowdiness in the seventh inning and Umpire O'Brien fined Wornwood $10. The first man up was Thorneill who singled. Connor flew to Ainsmith and Connor and Norris drew bases on balls filling the bases. Wornwood then came to bat and was called out on strikes. He disputed the umpire's decision and started abusing the latter whereupon O'Brien fined Wornwood $10. Messenger hit in front of the plate and was out at first.

Ainsmith and Warner struck out. Vandergift drew a base on balls and stole second, but Zinsar hit to Thorneill and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 5, Fall River 4.

EIGHTH INNING.
In the eighth inning Kane struck out. Austin hit a fly to deep left field and Magee made a pretty catch. Toomey flew out to Howard.

Magee got a single to left field. Howard hit to Wornwood and the latter threw him to second in getting Magee and the latter went to third while Howard went to second. Duff hit right field for a single scoring Magee. The ball was thrown home to stop Howard from scoring and just as Magee reached the plate the ball struck him in the leg and bounded in back of the catcher. Howard then scored. The Fall River players then raised a sick claim that Magee interfered with the ball, but the umpire refused to change his decision. During the mixup Duff went to third. Wolfe flew to Kane and Duff came home on the put out. Ulnice then hit to Thorneill who fumbled and he was safe at first. Ulnice stole second. Ainsmith got a single and Ulnice scored. Warner foul flew to Norris. Ainsmith stole second. Vandergift got his base on balls. Zinsar flew out to Kane.

Score—Lowell 9, Fall River 4.

NINTH INNING.
Thorneill got a single to center field. Connor hit to Wolfe who threw Thorneill out at second. Donovan got his base on balls. Norris hit to Ulnice forcing Donovan at second. Norris stole second and Gineath made a bad throw and Connor scored. Wornwood got his base on balls. Messenger hit to Ulnice forcing Wornwood at second.

DIAMOND NOTES
Lowell at Lynn today.

An umpire would need the patience of Job to hold his temper in a game with the Fall River bunch when they are on their rowdy behavior.

As a climax to an unprecedented scrappy day we are informed that Shannon and Winn had a clinch after the crowd had gone.

When O'Brien meets O'Brien get a ringside seat.

Connors and Norris handed out more profanity in Saturday's game than all the players in all the other games this year.

Howard monopolized the applause. Saturday. Every play he made was in the nature of a feature and he had six of them, while at bat he showed a homer and a double.

Dr. Ulnice didn't show up very well at the start. But he can do better.

When it appeared as if the game would be broken up and rain checks handed out, one man in the grand stand looked as if he were about to succumb to heart trouble. Give you three guesses on his name.

The officials of the New England league have suspended Umpire Joe O'Brien pending an investigation of Saturday's trouble. The official will have to stand by the umpire because he only practised what they have been preaching. Even if the umpire was wrong which we don't admit, Manager O'Brien should have obeyed him and then seek redress from the league. But instead of that the manager started a disgraceful fight in the presence of 2000 people including many ladies.

With all his faults Paddy Duff is generally there with the timely hit.

Magee is starting to bat again which is gladsome news.

CATHOLIC LEAGUE

Before a fair sized crowd the Mathews, the leaders in the Catholic league, defeated the Sacred Hearts in an uninteresting game Saturday afternoon. The features of the game were the one handed catch of Scanlon and the double play in which Donahue, Maloney and Hunt figured; also the throw of Sullivan's from deep center field to the plate stopping a run. THE COST OF OUR CELEBRATION

THE CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH OF JULY WILL SOON BE UPON US AND WHETHER THE CITY OFFICIALLY CELEBRATES OR NOT MAKES BUT LITTLE DIFFERENCE AS TO THE EXTENT OF THE NOISE AND THE NUMBER OF CASUALTIES.

INDEED WHEN THERE IS NO MUNICIPAL CELEBRATION, THE PEOPLE SEEM TO ARM THEMSELVES MORE EFFECTUALLY FOR THE FRAY, LOADING UP WITH FIRE CRACKERS, CANNON CRACKERS, SKYROCKETS, PISTOLS, RIFLES AND FIREARMS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

IT WOULD CERTAINLY BE A GREAT RELIEF TO HAVE A RADICAL REFORM IN THE METHOD OF CELEBRATING THE NATAL DAY OF THE REPUBLIC.

THE PRESENT PARTAKES OF THE WILDEST FREAKS OF INSANITY. GRADUALLY AS THE DAY APPROACHES BOTH YOUNG AND OLD SEEM TO GIVE WAY TO A MANIA FOR THE EXPLOSION OF FIRECRACKERS, THE DISCHARGE OF FIREARMS, THE JINGLE OF COWBELLS AND THE APPEARANCE IN PARADE OF ALL THE HORRIBLE BURLESQUES UPON HUMANITY THAT CAN WELL BE CONCEIVED. THIS, HOWEVER, IS NOT A DANGEROUS PRACTICE. THE DANGER COMES IN THE USE OF EXPLOSIVES TO SUCH AN EXTENT THAT NUMEROUS LIVES ARE LOST AND THOUSANDS WOUNDED EVERY YEAR.

WHAT IS THE USUAL NUMBER OF FATALITIES AND OF CASUALTIES WHERE DEATH DOES NOT RESULT?

TWO YEARS AGO THE STATISTICS OF ACCIDENTS IN CELEBRATING THE FOURTH SHOWED THAT 160 WERE KILLED OUT-RIGHT AND OVER 5,000 WERE MORE OR LESS SERIOUSLY INJURED AND MAIMED FOR LIFE. OF THIS NUMBER TWENTY-TWO BECAME TOTALLY BLIND, SEVENTY-TWO LOST ONE EYE, FIFTY-SIX LOST ARMS OR LEGS OR HANDS.

CHILDREN MOST GENERALLY BECOME THE VICTIMS IN THE FATALITIES AND THE MAIMING. OFTEN THROUGH THE PRACTICES ENCOURAGED BY THEIR PARENTS IN THE USE OF FIREARMS.

THIS SATURNALIA OF FIREWORKS AND NOISE WAS ORIGINALLY COPIED FROM CHINA AND LONG AGO WOULD HAVE BEEN SUPPRESSED WITH THE RIGOR OF LAW, BUT FOR THE FACT THAT IT IS SUPPOSED TO BE INDULGED IN FROM MOTIVES OF PATRIOTIC ARDOR. WHEN A CHILD IS KILLED OR MAIMED FOR LIFE, THE RESULT IS NOT MITIGATED IN THE LEAST BY THE FACT THAT THE ACCIDENT OCCURRED DURING THE FRENZY OF A PATRIOTIC CELEBRATION.

IF IT WERE ANNOUNCED PREVIOUS TO EACH FOURTH OF JULY THAT SOME GREAT PEST WAS TO INVADE THE COUNTRY AND THAT FROM 160 TO 200 PEOPLE WOULD LOSE THEIR LIVES AND OVER 5,000 WOULD BE DISFIGURED FOR LIFE, WHAT A FUREOR OF EXCITEMENT WOULD PERVADE THE CONTINENT, HOW MANY SOCIETIES WOULD BE FORMED TO MEET AND COMBAT THE SCOURGE. BUT THE DEATHS AND CASUALTIES COME NOT AS A RESULT OF PLAGUE OR PESTILANCE, NOT AS A RESULT OF ANY UNAVOIDABLE BATTLE, BUT WITH THE FULL AND FREE CONSENT OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, AYE, EVEN WITH THEIR COURAGEOUSNESS, ALL BECAUSE WE ARE ACCUSTOMED TO THIS FORM OF CELEBRATING THE FOURTH OF JULY.

IN VIEW OF THESE FACTS, IS IT NOT THE DUTY OF OUR CITIZENS GENERALLY TO USE THEIR INFLUENCE IN FAVOR OF A SAFE AND SANE CELEBRATION, ONE THAT WILL NOT COST A NUMBER OF LIVES, BRING SORROW TO MANY HOMES AND LEAVE THOUSANDS OF BOYS TO BE CRIPPLED, MAIMED OR SCARRED FOR LIFE?

VERILY IT IS TIME THAT OUR AMERICAN MUNICIPALITIES SHOULD TAKE THIS MATTER UP AND ADOPT SOME ENJOYABLE FORM OF CELEBRATION THAT WILL BE DEVOID OF THE EXPLOSIVES, THE FIREARMS AND THE REIGN OF BEDLAM THAT STARTS ON THE EVE OF THE FOURTH, CONTINUES ALL NIGHT AND ALL OF THE NEXT DAY ONLY TO SUBSIDE LATE IN THE NIGHT OF THE FOURTH WHEN THE RISING GENERATION SINKS TO REST TIRED, SORE AND WORN OUT BY ONE OF THE MOST FOOLISH AND DANGEROUS EXHIBITIONS THAT COULD BE WITNESSED IN ANY COUNTRY IN THE WORLD.

NEXT MORNING THE PRESS RECORDS BY THE THOUSANDS THE CASUALTIES OF THE DAY, THE HOSPITALS HAVE THE WOUNDED AND THE UNDERTAKERS THE DEAD. THE LIST WILL BE READ WITH SORROW AND AMAZES; BUT WHEN THE FOURTH ONCE MORE ARRIVES THE VERY SAME THING WILL BE REPEATED WITH PRECISELY SIMILAR RESULTS AND THUS YEARLY WE ON SACRIFICING HUNDREDS OF LIVES TO A FOOLISH ATTACHMENT TO A CUSTOM THAT DID ORIGINATE IN GENUINE MOTIVISM BUT THAT LONG AGO HAS DEGENERATED INTO AN RIOTOUSNESS AND FOOLISH INDIFFERENCE TO THE CONSEQUENCES.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

REFORM MOVEMENT.

Springfield Republican: The reform movement in San Francisco is evidently in a stage where it has lost much of its early momentum. It has been for a long time before the public and public interest is able enough to grow tired of the performance of chasing the rascals. It has been unfortunate that the graft prosecution has suffered reverses in the higher courts on technical points of law, resulting in the liberation of corrupt politicians like Schmitz and Ruef, for the upsetting of verdicts on appeal has undoubtedly had a demoralizing effect upon public sentiment, which has been reflected disastrously in the recent abrogation of James in important cases. Justices now are less likely to follow the lead of the prosecution than formerly, and they are encouraged in this obstructive attitude by a portion of the press.

That very much of the obstruction has originated from subsidized sources is probable, for the graft prosecution's attack upon the capitalist interests represented by Mr. Callahan, through the indictment of several men at the head of the street railroads, aroused those interests to a bitter contest. But of more abiding effect has been the growing indifference "of many good men," as Mr. Roosevelt says, "whose zealous support you had a right to feel that you could rely upon." Such citizens ought to be stirred to renewed activity in behalf of civic righteousness and common honesty.

AN ENCOURAGING SIGN.

Providence Tribune: In New York a city official occupying an important and remunerative position has been arraigned for maladministration. It is alleged that he has failed to discharge his duties honestly and economically; that he has wasted on streets hundreds of thousands of dollars that could have been saved had he not been bound hand and foot with unscrupulous politicians in search of easy and profitable berths; and that his incompetence is clearly proved by the record. There is nothing extraordinary in all this, of course; it is the usual thing. If the accused is removed he will be replaced by Tammany Hall, whose interests he has been serving. The public is helpless. But it is somewhat surprising, surely, to learn that taxpayers without regard to party are earnestly remonstrating and insisting upon certain radical changes in municipal government that will make it less difficult to fix responsibility and to hold accountable the guilty. Resentment has taken the place of apathy. It is an encouraging sign. The public may act always be helpless.

JOLLY CAMPERS

ENTERTAINED A FEW FRIENDS AT THEIR CAMP.

Tom Garvey, secretary of the Cigar-makers' union, A. A. Wahlgren, treasurer, and Tommy Gill, the apprentice at Scott's cigar factory, enjoyed the hospitality of the Jolly Campers at their cottage in Willow Dale Saturday afternoon and evening. About four o'clock in the afternoon they started to fish. They returned to the camp at 8:30 at night with as fine a catch of fish as has been seen for some time at Willow Dale. They had 45 trout which weighed 30 lbs. and 40 fine white perch which weighed 20 lbs. The string of fish were highly prized by the fishermen. They speak very highly of the good time given them by the Jolly Campers.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

By the Mathew Temperance Institute

The regular meeting of the Mathew Temperance Institute was held yesterday morning, there being a large attendance of members. Final arrangements for the trip to Worcester on the Fourth were made. The several sub-committees which have the affair in charge reported favorably.

JOHN J. COYNE,
President.

The following officers for the ensuing term were elected:

President, John J. Coyne; vice president, James J. Gallagher; recording secretary, James P. Riley; financial secretary, James F. Bourke; treasurer, John W. Shurkey; marshal, William J. Gargan; spiritual director, Rev. W. George Mullin; board of trustees, Geo. R. O'Neil, Frank J. Collins and Geo. F. Briggan; literary committee, Denis A. O'Brien, Patrick J. Bagley and William J. Smith; board of examiners, Robert T. Spencer, Walter E. Tucker and Daniel Wrenn. The officers will be installed at the next meeting.

STAR THEATRE

There is a show at the Star this week worth many times the price of admission. Billy Sully, the black-face comedian is head-liner. His music and jokes are up-to-date and highly entertaining. Babe Curry will sing for the first three days "I'm Waiting for the Summer Time and You," a very pretty, popular and catchy song finely adapted to this excellent little singer's voice. Miss Curry gets many words of praise for her sweet singing and she is a real tone of attraction to those who will hear her.

J. C. Bell will sing for the first three days "The Town Where I was Born," a beautiful little sentimental ballad, in his usual mastery way.

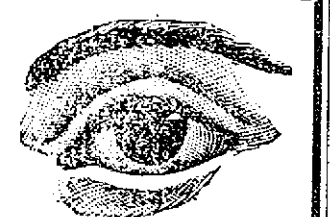

The new moving pictures for today and tomorrow are the best to be found in their line for nothing but the best is the motto of the management.

For Wednesday evening a special attraction is to be added to the usual program.

Mr. Alfred Leigh will do some tricks in mental telepathy and hypnotism.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

Tonight at Lakeview Theatre, the Adam Good Company will offer, for the first time in this city, the picturesque story of the Golden West, "The Girl of Eagle Ranch," a comedy drama in four acts. To follow up the signal success scored by the company in their play of last week, no better selection could have been made than this interesting play, for it has many strong points in its favor. Its scenes are laid at Eagle Ranch, just outside Mission, Mont., and although the plot and atmosphere are thoroughly western, it has none of the inconsistent scenes and incidents so common to the usual run of western dramas. Comedy runs riot all through its action, the story is absorbingly interesting yet not complicated, and during the past season when on tour through the country from coast to coast, the play proved to be one of the big successes of the year. Miss Overton as "the Girl" will have a part overflowing with life and vivacity and every one of the company will figure prominently in the play. Specialties will be introduced incidental to the performance and special scenic settings have been built for each act. The daily matinees will start tomorrow.

THEODORE BELL "NIGHT BEFORE" LUMBER BURNED

Temporary Chairman of Arrangements for Centralville's Celebration

Dem. Convention The Fire Was Caused by a Bolt

BLAZE AT CARLISLE LAST NIGHT Destroyed 1,000,000 Feet of Lumber

A bolt of lightning is responsible for the loss of almost 1,000,000 feet of lumber belonging to the firm of Blanchard & Co. of South Acton.

It had been cut during the winter and was lying in Carlisle near the Concord line when it became ignited during last night's thunder storm. The lumber was in an isolated section, and there was no one near by to give the alarm, but the illumination caused by the blaze soon notified the Concord fire department that its services were needed.

The fire spread with great rapidity, and by the time the apparatus arrived it had gained such great headway that it was impossible to save much of the lumber. The loss will be quite heavy.

Many people gathered on Fort Hill park and seeing the reflection in the sky thought that a mill at Billerica or else Concord reformatory was on fire as the blaze appeared to be in that direction.

The general committee in charge of the Centralville "Night Before the Fourth" celebration held a well attended and enthusiastic meeting yesterday afternoon at headquarters, 231 Bridge street. Everything is now practically in readiness for the monster celebration, but another meeting, the final one, will be held Thursday night.

The principal topic of conversation was the makeup of the parade, the naming of officials and aids, assistant to the chief marshal, together with the route of parade. The route was discussed at considerable length and it was finally decided not to announce the route till Thursday.

Chief Marshal Charles Guthrie announced the following appointments: Chief of staff, Walter E. Guyette; adjutant, Lieut. Howard J. McArdle; marshal of first division, Denis A. O'Brien; marshal of second division, Geo. E. Kauff. The list of aids to the chief marshal will be announced through the press later.

The committee on contribution announced that the money received so far amounted to over $100 with every indication that the grand total would be over $500. The finance committee will meet Tuesday to make its final report. Tuesday will be the final day for contributions and every member of the sub-committee having this in charge will make an endeavor to have things in readiness for the final report.

The two divisions will be composed of military and clan bands. The first division will consist of military and civic organizations and it is expected that there will be over one thousand in line. The sham band division promises to be one of the best features ever seen in this city. The clubs which have signified their intention of appearing in line are the Princeton Club, C. Y. M. A., Mysteries, Callahan Guards and numerous other clubs.

There will be a grand march for the grand army veterans, invited guests, by officials, members of the committee, judges and members of the press. The committee wishes to urge all who intend participating in the parade, to communicate with the members as soon as possible. No communications will be entertained after Tuesday night.

The C. Y. M. A. club of Centralville met yesterday and furthered plans for their feature which they intend entering in the sham band division. The members have labored hard to make it the best and their efforts, so they say, have been rewarded. They expect to pull off one of the prizes.

SUN'S ECLIPSE WITNESSED BY MANY PEOPLE IN THIS CITY.

The eclipse of the sun was witnessed by hundreds of people in this city yesterday. Shortly before ten o'clock the first sign of the shadow was seen and it continued to increase in size until about half of the sun's surface was covered. The eclipse ended at one o'clock.

The path of the eclipse crossed a portion of the Pacific ocean, Mexico, Gulf of Mexico, Florida, the Atlantic ocean and the northwestern part of Africa.

Ministry-at-Large Files Attachment Against Lowell Man

An attachment for $60,000 was recorded at noon Saturday as mentioned in our late edition at the local registry of deeds office against George R. Chandler. The action is brought by the Ministry-at-Large, of which Rev. George C. Wright is pastor.

Captain Thompson, the register, said to The Sun reporter that it was an attachment of tort and that the papers were filed at his office just about the closing hour today by Deputy Sheriff Eveleveth.

City Solicitor Hill is counsel for the Ministry-at-Large. It is understood that a controversy over the control and disposition of the church funds is at the bottom of the suit. It is expected that the action will be called for trial at an early date.

JOHN F. HASKELL SECRETARY LOEB

Well Known Lawyer Was Not Offered the Drooped Dead Chairmanship

John F. Haskell, a well-known lawyer and much respected citizen, died of heart failure in his office, room 40 Hill-dreth building late Saturday. Medical Examiner Meigs was summoned and pronounced death due to heart failure.

It was a newsboy who discovered the lifeless body of Mr. Haskell. The boy called at the office with Mr. Haskell's paper and as he entered he saw the lifeless body of the attorney in a chair near his desk.

There was no sign of any struggle and it was evident from his position in the chair that death came quietly, suddenly and painlessly. With the exception that his head was stooped, his chin resting on his breast, the lawyer's position in the chair was natural. He had been dead but a few minutes.

Mr. Haskell had been ailing for some considerable time and this afternoon he said to somebody in an adjoining office that he was not feeling well but he thought he could work it off, and with that in mind he entered his office and seated himself at his customary position at his desk.

Lawyers and others with offices in the building looked in upon the still features of the attorney, whose quiet manner and even disposition had won him many friends, and expressed their sorrow because of the sudden call of death.

FOUND HANGING

BODY WAS THAT OF EDWARD J. RYAN.

WORCESTER, June 28.—The body of Edward J. Ryan, an inmate of the Worcester insane hospital at Bloomingdale, who ran away from the hospital last Wednesday evening, was found yesterday hanging by the neck from a tree in some woods on a farm near the institution. Ryan was committed from Worcester in January, 1906. His insanity took a mild form and he was allowed to do work about the kitchen in the institution.

"Nothing is known about his relatives here, but it is said that one time he worked as a machinist in Woonsocket, R. I. He was 49 years old."

A HEAVY DEFICIT

Third Largest Since the Civil War

WILL AMOUNT TO $60,000,000

Disbursements for Year Are $659,000,000

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The forthcoming statement of the treasury receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, will show a marked falling off in the receipts as compared with the year 1907 and a large increase in the expenditures.

The excess of the expenditures over receipts for the year will approximate $60,000,000 which has been exceeded only twice since the civil war. In 1899 there was another of a little more than $50,000,000, and in each of the four intervening years the receipts fell considerably below the disbursements.

In 1904 and 1905 there were shortages of $11,770,000 and $23,000,000 respectively. The total receipts this year will be shown to have been about $359,000,000, or $64,000,000 less than for the fiscal year 1907. Custom receipts will be shown to have fallen off about $45,000,000 from those of 1907, while the receipts from internal revenue sources will be short nearly $19,000,000. Miscellaneous receipts will show a slight gain.

The disbursements for the year will be shown to have aggregated about $659,000,000, or $50,000,000 more than for 1907 and $4,000,000 more than for any year since 1902, not excepting the Spanish war period.

Although these increased disbursements are very general and are showing in nearly every account except that of interest on the public debt, some of the heaviest of them were for permanent improvements.

The Panama canal in the closing year will have cost the government $35,000,000 as against $27,000,000 for 1907, and the work this year in connection with the reclamation of the public lands will be shown to have cost about $13,000,000, which is not far from last year's figures.

The deficiency in the postal revenues for the present year will probably reach $13,500,000, as against $7,500,000 for 1907, making a difference of $6,000,000.

This is the largest postal deficiency in the history of the government, except in 1904, when it reached nearly $15,000,000. The records show that there has been a postal deficiency every year since the establishment of the service with the exception of 12, when small surpluses were shown. The expense of the rural free mail delivery this year is not expected to fall below $25,000,000.

The decrease in the amount of the receipts of $64,000,000 and the increase in the expenditures of $50,000,000 make a difference against the treasury for the fiscal year of $114,000,000.

A KIND OF ADVERTISING THAT GROWETH NOT ON BUSHES.

The most valuable advertising we know of is the good after-word spoken by one's customer. It's easy to write advertising, easy to claim superiority in goods, sacrificing prices and all that sort of thing; but what does the buyer think and say afterward? Does it pay to advertise facts that one fails to make good? Obviously it does not. It is certainly very gratifying when the goods will advertise themselves as witnesses.

George C. Larrabee, manager of the Tailor Clothing Co., on Central street, a man of standing too high to permit the using of his name in any way or manner other than for straight and clear purposes, a man who knows "a lot" and a lot of things instinctively, says a whole lot in a few words.

Lowell Gas Light Co., Lowell, Mass. Gentlemen—The Vulcan water heater installed in my home by you and which you inquire about continues to give satisfaction. This water heating attachment cost me with connections $26.00. If I could not replace it, I would not be without it for $100.00. You have my permission to use this endorsement for what it is worth.

Yours truly,
George C. Larrabee.

Lowell, June 30, 1908.
And don't you think for one minute that it's not worth a whole lot, Mr. Larrabee!

ECLIPSE OF SUN

ATTRACTED GREAT CROWD TO NAVAL OBSERVATORY.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The eclipse of the sun, so long awaited by astronomers and spectators to the United States naval observatory here yesterday, the day could hardly have been more favorable for the purpose. The first contact occurred 35 minutes and twenty-eight seconds after 5 o'clock yesterday morning, ten seconds ahead of the predicted time, while the second contact occurred forty-nine minutes and two seconds past noon, twenty-three seconds ahead of the predicted time.

The image of the sun was almost powerful when the first contact occurred, but it was not so good at the time of the second contact owing to clouds.

Professor George Peters of the naval observatory took seven photographs, which showed in addition to the moon projected upon the sun, three sun spot groups.

The planet Venus, which is passing between the earth and the sun, was visible during the eclipse.

COYLE ELECTED

HEAD OF THE B. & M. BOARD OF ARBITRATION.

BOSTON, June 28.—The secession of the Boston and Maine system divisions from the International Brotherhood of Railway Employees became a fixed fact yesterday, when the Boston and Maine's board of arbitration and adjustment met at the Quincy house and elected President P. J. Coyle, Boston; vice presidents, A. E. Barnes, Salem; D. F. Roman, Portland, Me.; J. M. Mulcahy, Newbury, Vt.; secretary-treasurer, B. H. Small, Portland, Me. A name for the new organization has not yet been selected.

The secession is a result of dissatisfaction with the acts of the officials of the International Brotherhood, dating from the recent convention held in this city. It is claimed there is nearly seventy percent of the men of the Boston and Maine divisions in the new organizations, numbering all told about 1600 men.

PRINCELY LOVER

Determined That He
Will Wed

MADRID, June 28.—"I will marry Beatrice if I have to quit Spain, leave the army and forfeit my princely privileges," declared Don Antonio of Bourbon-Orleans. "No sacrifice is too great for me to make for her sake, though I hope she may yet become reconciled to the Catholic church."

Religious faith is the only barrier to a marriage between Infanta Beatrice, older son, a cousin of Spain's king, and Princess Beatrice of Sax-Coburg-Gotha, a cousin of Spain's queen.

Beatrice and her husband, the duke of Galliera, have stoutly opposed the match unless Beatrice became a Catholic, but Don Antonio seems to have won his mother over to his cause. At any rate, she came here from Paris with him on a hurried visit to tell King Alfonso that he had better induce the pope to grant a dispensation for a mixed marriage, as Antonio and Beatrice are determined to get married anyway.

The king is quite willing to help them out and so is the queen, who would dearly love to have her favorite cousin at the Spanish court for a companion. But the queen mother is holding out, insisting that Beatrice must accept the Catholic faith as a condition precedent to betrothal, just as Princess Ena did. Princess Beatrice, who is built something on the lines of Shakespeare's famous heroine of the same name, is so independent and so resolute that the Spanish royalists are afraid she never will be converted except under stress of desire to marry the man of her choice. Even now she positively refuses to promise anything more than that if she feels drawn to the church after marriage she will become a Catholic.

The court is taking the liveliest interest in the case, and sympathy is all on the side of the lovers.

Nothing doing the 4th in Lowell. Better go to Nashua races.

ATTACKED GIRLS

YOUNG ARNOLD WAS PLACED UNDER ARREST.

ANDOVER, June 28.—Fred P. Arnold, 17 years old, of Somerville, has been held for the superior court under bonds of $500 for breaking and entering and assault. He was captured Friday night at the cottage of John Shaw at Haggerty pond. While ransacking the place he entered a room occupied by Ruth and Mary Shaw, daughters of Mr. Shaw, and when they gave an outcry he struck Ruth, aged 17, on the head with a stick of wood. Mary, aged 10, rushed out and aroused her father, who held Arnold for the police.

The youth was discharged from the Concord reformatory a few weeks ago. He told Chief of Police Pomeroy that he went to the Shaw cottage in search of a revolver with which he intended to hold up George Dickinson, a farmer, who resides in the vicinity.

Arnold had spent a vacation at Haggerty pond once, and was familiar with the vicinity. He put up at the Shaw's first two days after he arrived here and then, on the third day, he was something wrong with him. Nothing was seen of him after that till he broke into the cottage Friday night.

NORTH BILLERICA

A farce entitled "Which Will He Marry?" was presented by local talent under the auspices of St. Elizabeth's Guild in the new parish building of St. Anne's mission, Saturday night. The sketch, "An Unexpected Legacy," was given by Lowell talent.

An entertainment was provided which included the following numbers: Recitation, "The Whistling Regiment," Miss Mary H. Brown; piano solo, Walter Robert Spencer; recitation, Miss Malloy; piano solos, Mrs. James Simpson and John W. Stott. An address was given by the rector, Rev. A. St. John Chabre, D.D., of Lowell. The proceeds of the affair are to be used for improvements on the interior of the building. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation to Rev. Dr. Chabre of a handsome portrait of himself, a gift from the guild.

EX-GOV. DOUGLAS

Willing to Be Bryan's
Running Mate

LINCOLN, Neb., June 28.—Josiah Quincy of Massachusetts, formerly intimate friend of Grover Cleveland, who bolted Bryan in 1896, has been the most important visitor here in all the list of visitors from every part of the country. Mr. Quincy is now one of the strongest supporters Bryan can boast. Mr. Bryan admitted this much after he and Mr. Quincy held a conference lasting three hours, immediately after which Mr. Quincy started for Denver. Mr. Bryan was highly pleased with the visit and alluded to it with gratification as indicating the return to the party of the great body of the democrats who refused to follow his standard 12 years ago.

Children Take Part in
Temperance Parade

BOSTON, June 28.—More than 6000 children, and several hundred men and women, who acted as escort to the boys and girls, took part in the second annual parade of the Holy Family temperance league through the South End yesterday afternoon.

The procession started at the corner of Tremont and Dartmouth streets promptly at 2:30 o'clock, when the chief marshal, Maj. John J. Leonard, gave the word. Between 3 and 4 o'clock the long column passed before Most Rev. William H. O'Connell, who, with the priests of the cathedral and Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Gannon, S. J., the president of Boston college, reviewed the marching thousands.

When the Knights of the Sacred Heart from St. Joseph's church, Somerville, a uniformed command, had brought the procession to a close, the archbishop expressed himself as decidedly pleased with the showing made.

The archbishop said, in reply to a question: "Yes, indeed, a grand sight. Most encouraging."

It was a happy day for those who for several years have striven to establish the Holy Family temperance league, chief among them being Rev. Fr. Francis J. Butler of St. Leo's church, Dorchester, the founder.

BANNERS AWARDED.

Two prize banners were awarded. One was for the best-appearing command and the largest number of children to participate. The first was awarded to the boys and girls of St. Michael's church, Hudson.

Their appearance surely was deserving, for all along the route the applause was almost unceasing.

The children of St. Augustine's church in South Boston, 100 strong, easily carried off the banner for the largest number.

The procession was carried out in a businesslike way under the efficient management of Maj. Leonard's staff, with some half-hundred prominent temperance workers.

The object of the parade was to demonstrate the work of the Holy Family temperance league, spoken of by those affiliated with it as the most sensible and systematic organization which will combat the evils of intemperance.

The idea is to instill into the minds of the children by continuous education the habit that intemperance can work in the home and in every branch of life. Then, through the child, the plague reaches the home and results in better conditions there.

MRS. SCHWAB'S MOTHER DEAD.

PITTSBURGH, June 28.—News was received here today of the death last night of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Kinney, mother of Mrs. Charles M. Schwab, at the summer home of the steel magnate at Loretta, Pa. She was also the mother of A. C. Kinney, president of the Carnegie steel company. She was 72 years old, and was twice married, first to Reuben Kinney and later to Alonzo Kinney.

by persons who enjoy Mr. Bryan's confidence that Mr. Quincy is in accord with all the principles enunciated by the Nebraska platform, which will be carried to Denver as the candidate's last complete expression on the most important national issues. It is known that he assured Mr. Bryan, that even should the Massachusetts delegation not be able to modify the injunction and federal license plank, the democracy of that state will give earnest support to the ticket. It is also known that Mr. Quincy brought word to Mr. Bryan that William L. Douglas, who was elected governor of Massachusetts in 1904 in spite of the big majority for which President Roosevelt swept that state, is in no sense an aspirant for the vice presidential nomination at Denver. At the same time Mr. Bryan was told that Douglas would take the nomination for second place should it be given him without a struggle and that this would assure the swinging of Massachusetts into the democratic column in November.

Mr. Bryan listened with marked interest to the representations made to him by Mr. Quincy, and, although he did not say outright that Ex-Gov. Douglas would be entirely acceptable to him, he made it plain that he would be especially pleased should the eastern contingent unite on a man for second place, and by presenting a solid front at the convention obtain his nomination.

LATTER IS UNDER ARREST

And is Being Held Without Bail

NEWPORT, R. I., June 28.—John Arsenault, aged 15, a member of a prominent family here, struck and probably fatally injured Joseph Foster, aged 42, here last night, about 6:30. The lad is in jail, having been refused bail, and a crowd is watching the bulletins issued from the Foster home in Centre street. Arsenault gave himself up to the police and described the affair to them. His story is substantiated by seven youthful friends who were with him.

The young man said he and his friends were playing in the wagon yard of William C. Grow, a wheelwright, which is opposite the Foster home, and over which Foster watched while the plant was not in operation. Foster ordered them away and the boys declare, accompanied by him, by throwing a stick at them. Young Arsenault struck him on the jaw with his fist, and then turned and slap his hands to his head and slowly sank to the ground. He returned to the spot and finding the man unconscious, helped to get him to his home. He then went to the police, explained what he had done and gave himself up.

The Arsenault and Foster families are neighbors and have been friendly. The doctor who is attending Foster says he cannot live, and attributes his condition to concussion of the brain or fracture of the skull.

HELEN GOULD

OBJECTS TO MARRIAGE OF HER SISTER.

PARIS, June 28.—While all the cohorts of the late day took some persons in number, have signed a regular deed in consent to the marriage of Mme. Anna Gould to Prince Helle de Sagan, a member of the family said yesterday that the consent of Miss Helen Gould was obtained only with the utmost difficulty.

As evidence of her disapproval, Miss Gould added the following postscript to her signature:

"While I have signed this legal document in order not to deprive my sister of a part of her fortune, I feel it due to myself to say here that I deeply regret the contemplated marriage."

"Helen Gould."

SPECIAL NOT

ARE THE SIGNERS SORRY THEY SIGNED?

As a matter of fact, 'twas a wonderful act,
When the fathers in seventy-six

Made the colonies free by concurrent decree
And their names to the same did affix...

But, alas, when the great Declaration they signed
The big noise they would cause they had never in mind!

If the patriot sires who enkindled the fires
Wherein liberty's beacons still burn

Are aware of the noise that is made by the boys,
In their tombs they must tremble and turn;

Every signer must rise in his large white cravat
And remark to the militant celebrant, "Scat!"

There are times when I think that their spirits must shrink
And their shades they must shudder and shake,
For the deafening din of their progeny kin
Is enough to keep dead men awake,
And I don't understand why it is that the sons
Cannot honor the sires save with crackers and guns.

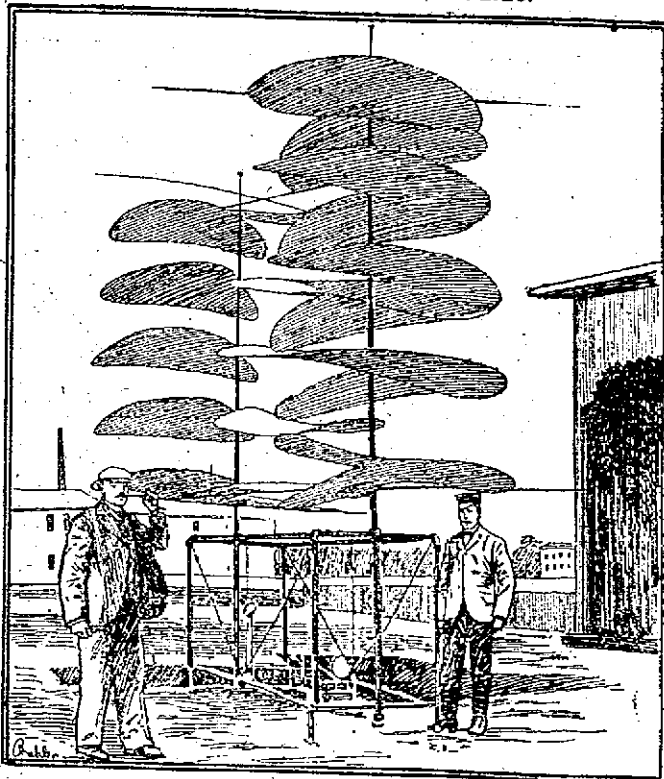

Now, it isn't that I'm so opposed to a "time"
On the glorious Fourth of July,
But the "Let Us Alone" motto should, you must own,
To the dead as the living apply,
And we shouldn't with clamor be, oh, so unkind
As to make the old signers regret that they signed!

ODDS AND ENDS OF INTEREST FROM EVERYWHERE

A FLYING MACHINE THAT FLIES.

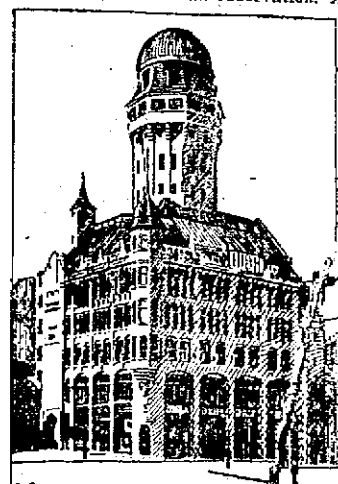

The cut shows the new Wedekind flying machine, which is kept aloft by a series of spiral helices. This method seems to be a practical realization of Jules Verne's forecast in "The Clipper of the Clouds." Thus another of the clever Frenchman's predictions has been fulfilled.

A NEW AMUSEMENT FOR GERMAN CHILDREN.

The picture illustrates a new amusement which is very popular at the Hamburg zoological gardens. There is a large collection of giant tortoises at this resort, and children are permitted to ride on them. Each child carries a stick with a head of lettuce attached to the end, and this is kept dangling in front of the tortoise.

FOR AMATEUR ASTRONOMERS.

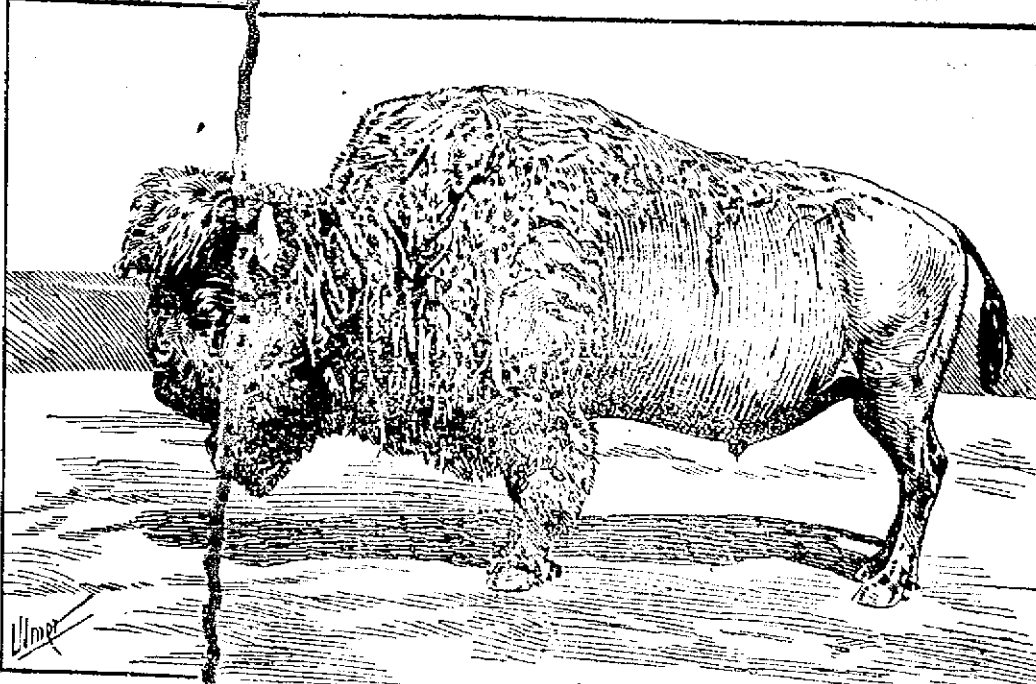

The building shown herewith is in Zurich, Switzerland, and is a public observatory which is open to any one who wishes to make an observation. A small fee is charged for the use of certain instruments, but all are welcome to the privileges of the establishment.

COUNT TOLSTOY AS A PIANO PLAYER.

The cut is from a recent photograph of Tolstoy and his daughter at the piano. Among the many accomplishments of the wonderful old Russian his command of the technique of the piano is most amazing. Even at his advanced age and in spite of his poor health he still plays the works of the classical masters with the touch of a virtuoso.

A HIGHLY PRIZED PROTEGE OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

The splendid specimen of the American bison shown in the picture is king of the herd of seventy maintained by Uncle Sam in Yellowstone park. Realizing that the buffalo was in danger of becoming extinct, President Roosevelt and the American Bison Society have taken measures to prevent the threatened loss. Canada also is in possession of a few buffaloes.

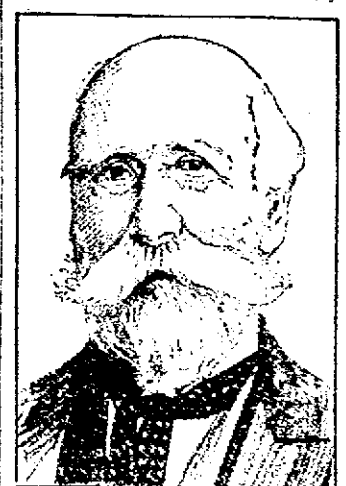

A NEWLY WEDDED ROYAL PAIR

The marriage of Prince William of Sweden and the Russian Grand Duchess Marie was celebrated recently at the Russian royal palace at Tsarskoe-Selo in the presence of a large number of European royalties. Although the prince is a staunch Lutheran, it is understood that the new princess will remain in the Orthodox church if she prefers.

THE OLDEST PEER.

Lord Gwydyr is chiefly remarkable from the fact that he is the oldest member of the British house of lords. He has recently celebrated his ninety-eight birthday and is still in the best of health and acts as high sheriff of Ipswich.

A UNIQUE PET.

The cut shows the odd pet belonging to "Tums" Cavill, a professional swimmer. The little seal followed Cavill about in the water one day and was so desirous of making his acquaintance that the swimmer adopted him. The baby seal is devoted to his master and is so tame that he likes to sleep in Cavill's arms.
